

Khrushchev Cites Reds' Rocket Output

Points to Might but Asks Peace

Moscow —(AP)— Premier Nikita Khrushchev says one Soviet factory alone has turned out 250 rockets with hydrogen warheads in one year — enough to "raze all our potential enemies off the face of the earth."

"You can well imagine that if this lethal weapon is exploded over some country there will be nothing left there at all," Khrushchev told a meeting of Soviet journalists. But he said the Soviet government is "ready to sink all this in the sea in the interests of ensuring peace on earth. . . if other countries will follow our example."

Khrushchev's speech was made Friday, but his text was not released until last night.

The Russian leader said he was making public the rocket production figure to back up his 1958 announcement that the Soviets were turning out intercontinental ballistic missiles. He did not indicate whether the plan he referred to was producing all of Russia's nuclear-headed rockets.

Denies Policy Changed
"Some in the west claim that the Soviet Union has changed its policy and therefore it has become easier to talk with us," Khrushchev said. "This is wrong, of course. Communists we were born, communists we live and will not die but continue to march onward as communists."

Khrushchev said a sincere desire for peace, not any military, economic or political

Harvard, Yale Drop Student Loan Plan

Pusey Asserts Loyalty Oath Affidavit Affronts Freedom

New Haven, Conn. —(AP)— Yale and Harvard, two of the nation's most influential universities, have withdrawn from the federal student loan program. The program requires borrowers to sign a loyalty affidavit.

Yale President A. Whitney Griswold said the affidavit "is contrary to the classic principles of our colleges and universities."

Harvard President Nathan M. Pusey called it misguided, and an "affidavit of disbelief."

Pusey, former president of Lawrence College, said the affidavit is discriminatory "since it singles out students alone in our population — and, among students, the neediest — as subjects for special distrust. . ."

Oath Ineffective

He said persons disloyal to the United States would not hesitate to sign the affidavit, and called it "an effort to freedom of belief and conscience. . ."

"It seems counter to the philosophical principles on which our national strength has been built," he said. Griswold said the affidavit "partakes of the nature of the oppressive religious and political test oaths of history, which were used as a means of exercising control over the educational process by church or state."

He added that "loyalty can-

Soviets Press Economy Drive

Red Bloc Almost Doubles Number of Experts Abroad

BY JOHN SCALI

Washington —(AP)— The Soviet bloc is pressing its economic offensive at a record pace that has nearly doubled the number of communist technicians in foreign countries.

New figures disclosed by diplomatic officials today show that Russia, red China and eastern European allies have poured out $882 million for long-term development projects in the first 10 months of this year.

Sharp Increase

At the same time, the number of "non-military" communist technical experts accompanying the aid has jumped from 2,760 last year to 4,675 by the end of June of this year. The number is believed to be well over 5,000 now — and still going up.

The amount of communist bloc assistance pledged this year promises to surpass 1958's record total of $1,029,000,000. If it does, it will hike the total the Sino-Soviet bloc has extended during the past five years to some $3,400,000,000.

One key country — India — has been given almost half of the total aid the bloc has put out this year. The bloc assigned a $420 million allocation to Prime Minister Nehru's government along with 470 more red technicians.

Arms Issue Not Discussed in London Talks

Macmillan and Adenauer Progress On Other Problems

BY TOM OCHILTREE

London —(AP)— Prime Minister Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer have decided to avoid the controversial topic of limiting arms in central Europe in their friendship-mending talks.

British and West German spokesmen said today both sides had agreed to stay away from the subject after a day of talks in which good progress was reported toward settling some of their differences.

It was Macmillan's visit to Moscow early this year, when he discussed with Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev the idea of limiting arms in a zone of central Europe, that excited Adenauer's suspicion of British policy.

On 3-Day Visit

Adenauer feared such a policy would start a process of allied withdrawal in central Europe that would weaken the western defensive shield, leaving West Germany exposed to communist pressure.

Adenauer arrived in London yesterday for a 3-day visit in an effort to clear away months of bickering.

He and Macmillan cancelled a second conference this morning to allow their foreign ministers, Selwyn Lloyd and Heinrich von Brentano, to go into more detail on points touched on in the opening meeting yesterday.

Lloyd and Von Brentano discussed disarmament, an east-west summit meeting and relationships between two rival European trade zones, the British-led "outer seven" and the common market of which West Germany is a member.

Seek to Learn Cause of Death Of Potter Boy

An autopsy was performed this morning at St. Elizabeth hospital to determine the cause of death of Glen Meyer, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton G. Meyer, Potter, who was dead on arrival at Calumet Memorial hospital, Chilton, at 6:25 p.m. Tuesday.

Glen, a junior at Brillion High school, became ill Monday noon and was taken out of school. By Tuesday morning he felt well but by noon he was irrational and a doctor was called. About 3 p.m., the boy was talking about attending the Brillion — Reedsville basketball game.

His mother looked in on him about 6 p.m. and could find no pulse. He was rushed to the hospital. Tentative cause of death, Calumet county Coroner LeRoy Hughes said, has been listed as acute pneumonia.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a brother, Kenneth, Two Rivers, and a sister, Mrs. Ralph Schneider, Sheboygan. He was born Dec. 30, 1942, in Manitowoc.

Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Friday at St. Michael Catholic church, Whitelaw, with burial in the parish cemetery. Friends may call after 2:30 p.m. Thursday at the Wieting Funeral home, Brillion, where the rosary will be said at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Ike May Ask Truman To Join Him on Trip

Aide Says Proposal Considered

AP Wirephoto

The Cecil Emery, Jr., family couldn't wait to look at color slides after they returned to Seattle, Wash., from a 4-month 'round-the-world trip and settled temporarily in the home of Mrs. Emery's parents. They did what millions often want to do. Emery took off from his $5,200-a-year job, they sold their home and all their possessions and took off around the world.

Make Dream Come True

Sell Home to Go on Trip Around World

Seattle —(AP)— At first glance, Cecil Emery, Jr., appears to be Mr. Average American.

He's 39 . . . married the sweetheart in 1942 he met at the YMCA here as a GI from Chicago in World War II . . . has four fine children . . . earns $100-a-week as a telephone equipment maintenance man . . . has the usual worries of trying to make his paycheck stretch.

But he's no ordinary guy. Enjoyed Self

With the approval of his lovely wife, Patricia, 36, he sold his house and all their belongings to finance a 4-month trip around the world for his family. It cost them $5,500. Only a tiny nest egg is left.

Yesterday they finished this dream other tens of thousands only talk about and never . . . "We wouldn't trade it for all the money in the world," said Emery and his wife, "and that's just about what we don't have any of."

"We had a ball," they said.

There were violent nods of agreement from Jim, 16; John, 13; Linda, 10, and Tommy, 4.

Emery said that with a family his size and a modest income it was impossible to save for a world tour. The only thing they had was the equity in the home he built.

Seventh Hunter Fatally Wounded

Milwaukee —(AP)— The gunshot toll of Wisconsin deer hunters rose to seven today.

Deaths of hunters due to heart attacks in the woods stood at five, all during the opening weekend of the 16-day season.

Adolph F. Mueller, 48, of rural Mosinee died at a Rhinelander hospital Tuesday night of a bullet wound suffered Sunday in Vilas county.

Mueller was shot through the lungs by a stray bullet and lay helpless in near-zero temperatures seven hours before searchers found him shortly before midnight.

Begin Probe Of Cheating

Meat and Other Food Stores Said To Be Involved

New York —(AP)— The city director of weights and measures was fired yesterday in the midst of a spreading probe of butchers who cheat customers and city inspectors who help them do it.

The investigation underway before a Brooklyn grand jury was spreading not only to meat markets in other boroughs, but also to marketing practices in other retail food stores.

As reports of scale-rigging, payoffs, phony advertising and false labeling of meats came out of the investigation, Mayor Robert F. Wagner fired Fred J. Loughran, director of weights and measures, and ordered new rules and regulations drawn up by the department of markets.

Loughran, a 47-year-old former court clerk who later became an aide to former Mayor William O'Dwyer and joined the markets department in 1946, appeared before the Brooklyn grand jury yesterday.

Augusta, Ga. —(AP)— President Eisenhower is mulling over a proposal that he ask Harry S. Truman to go along on next month's good — will visit to three continents, a White House spokesman says.

Wayne Hawks, acting White House press secretary, told a news conference questioner yesterday: "He has it under consideration, yes."

But one obvious obstacle in the way of turning the president and former president into traveling companions is that for seven years there hasn't been much good will between them.

A spokesman for Truman said in Kansas City that Truman knew nothing of the idea.

It was Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) who suggested that Eisenhower make his 20,000-mile tour of 11 nations a bipartisan affair. He wrote a letter to the chief executive Friday proposing that Eisenhower invite one or more Democrats experienced in international affairs.

Acheson Mentioned
In addition to Truman, the senator mentioned Dean Acheson, who was Truman's secretary of state; Adlai E. Stevenson, the loser to Eisenhower in the 1952 and 1956 presidential campaigns; and Rep. Chester Bowles (D-Conn.), a former ambassador in India.

India, with red China glowing across her northern border, is a high priority point on the tour. Eisenhower will spend more time there than in any other country.

It is in preparation for the trip that the president is vacationing here at Augusta National Golf club and storing up as much rest and relaxation as he can. Conferences with Washington officials still take some of his time.

For a session today, he called in the five members of the joint chiefs of staff for what, Hawks said is one of their periodic meetings with the commander-in-chief.

Discuss Military Plans
They will discuss military plans and program," Hawks said.

That was to be the only information forthcoming on the meeting, Hawks said. The joint chiefs planned to fly back to Washington without seeing newsmen.

Hawks said there was no indication that the conference was related to Eisenhower's travels to Europe, Asia and Africa or a western summit conference starting Dec. 19 in Paris.

Hawks said he thinks an answer to Dodd's letter will be coming up very shortly.

"Is this something he is consulting with other people about?" a newsman inquired. "I just don't know who he is consulting or whether he is or not," Hawks said.

But he was definite on one thing: Eisenhower hasn't communicated with Truman about it.

Eisenhower - Truman relations have been frosty ever since the 1952 political wars, in which Truman fought Eisenhower and the GOP with typical vigor and picturesque speech.

House Investigators Check Up on Dick Clark

They Want to Get Facts About His TV Practices

Philadelphia —(AP)— House investigators have come here to check information about the television practices of Dick Clark, idol of teenagers.

The house subcommittee on legislative oversight announced the investigators' trip yesterday. A spokesman said the information generally concerned the subcommittee's investigation of practices used to promote music.

The subcommittee announced recently that it would investigate payoffs to disc jockeys to play and promote records.

Drops Other Interests
Clark's network issued a statement last night in New York:

The American Broadcasting company said it had "examined all evidence available to us" on Clark's various shows and had concluded its investigation with "renewed faith and confidence in Dick Clark's integrity."

Clark, ABC went on, "has neither solicited nor accepted any personal considerations—money or otherwise—to have any performer appear or to play any record—on any of his programs."

Clark declined all comment.

Earlier, it was announced the 29-year-old TV star had

NATO Leader Wants to Bolster Sea Defenses

Washington —(AP)— The supreme allied commander for the Atlantic today called for increased contributions by all NATO nations to defend the vital sea link between North America and Europe.

Adm. Jerauld Wright told a conference of NATO parliamentarians "the defense of the Atlantic is not a one or a two or a three-nation task. It is what we call an 'all hands job,' one to which all NATO nations can contribute."

He added, "We appreciate that most nations cannot afford the highly complex and sophisticated naval weapons involved in all aspects of our naval defenses, but there are many tasks in which they all have the technical capability and, we hope, the economic capacity, for increased assistance."

Convoy Operations
"Such matters are: Convoy escort operations by ships and ASW (anti-submarine warfare) and maritime air, mine clearance, communications support, etc."

Wright said nuclear-powered submarines, homing torpedoes and atomic depth charges are available to NATO forces, and described the interlocking effort of Canada and the United States to protect the Atlantic coast from submarine attack.

But he said, "the economic policies of our NATO nations on defense expenditures presently permit only token coverage of the area but we have developed the technique, applicable to both sides of the Atlantic, and are able to extend our coverage if and when

Young Mississippi Negro Tells How Trio Attacked 3 White Men

Tupelo, Miss. —(AP)— "We were cutting and hitting him Sunday night and Monday night. . . I did not know how bad I had cut this man. I did not care. . ."

Police planned to present this statement to a grand jury today. Police Chief Robert Monaghan said it was made by Otto Jones, 18, described as the ringleader of a group of three Negroes who admitted stabbing three white persons in separate incidents.

Zeckendorf Acquire 3 Hotels in Chicago

New York —(AP)— The Zeckendorf hotel interests have acquired three major Chicago hotels—the Sherman, the Ambassador East and the Ambassador West.

William Zeckendorf, Jr., announced his group's expansion beyond the New York area yesterday.

The group already controlled the Astor, Chatham, Commodore, Drake, Manhattan and Taft hotels in New York City. It is building a new midtown Manhattan hotel, to be called the Zeckendorf.

The Zeckendorf interests will assume control of the three Chicago hotels by Feb. 4.

The Zeckendorf announcement put the cost of the Chicago acquisition at $6,615,007.

The stabbing victims were Alonzo Dodson, 48, Andy Mills, 16, and Don Morris, 20.

Besides Jones, a native of Amory who returned to Mississippi from Chicago about a month ago, the boys arrested were T. L. Carrothers, 17, and J. D. Little, 16, both of Tupelo.

Jones' statement dealt only with the stabbing of Dodson.

Angry at Whites
What was behind the stabbing? Jones said he armed himself with a kitchen knife Sunday night and went out with the intention of cutting some white person "because of the way white people had treated me twice in the past."

His statement didn't develop the point about his animosity toward white persons. But Monaghan previously had quoted Jones as saying he had never forgotten a whipping a white truck driver gave him in 1957.

Jones had told newsmen the knife attack on a white person was an initiation test for a gang he had formed. Jones said he was a member of the Black Hawk gang in Chicago.

Police said Jones also told them, "I hate white people."

Jones, Carrothers and Little were charged with assault and battery with intent to kill and murder.

Monaghan said Mills was

Growers Declare Cranberries Safe

Canned Sauce on Store Shelves Made From Crop Harvested in '58; Ask U. S. to Reassure Consumers

Washington — (AP) — Cranberry producers asserted today that their products now on the market are safe to eat. They called on Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Fleming to give that reassurance to the American public.

Ambrose E. Stevens, general manager of a farmers cooperative which he said represents 75 per cent of the cranberry crop, said canned cranberry sauce now on store shelves was made from berries harvested in 1958.

Neither the federal Food and Drug administration nor producers, Stevens said, have any reason to believe that last year's crop was improperly treated in any manner with the weed killer aminotriazole. "The very careful restrictions made by us on fresh berries also indicate that 10 million pounds of fresh cranberries in grocery stores are also entirely pure," Stevens added.

Public Cautioned

Traces of the weed killer, which has been found to cause cancer in rats, have been detected in some lots of cranberries.

This discovery prompted Fleming to caution the public last week on what he called the possible hazard in eating the favorite Thanksgiving and Christmas season sauce unless it could be identified as coming from a safe area.

Stevens at a conference called by Fleming presented a 5-point industry program designed to relieve Americans of any worry.

Stevens, representing the Ocean Spray cranberries cooperative, said his growers had been forbidden as long ago as Sept. 18 to use the questioned herbicide on their cranberry properties in any form despite approval by the department of agriculture for use after harvest.

Stevens said this was done "because of the controversial nature of aminotriazole."

Possible Effect

He said the prohibition will stay in effect until the possible effect of the compound on humans is finally determined.

Stevens said Fleming's statement in regard to consumption of cranberries was "ill advised" and commented that the cranberry industry now refers to Nov. 9, when Fleming issued it, as "black Monday."

Assembly Kills 38 Bills From Spring Session

Straight Party Line Vote Clears Decks of Pending Legislation

Madison — (AP) — Wisconsin Democrats, acting in unity, have killed 38 assembly bills laid over from the spring session of the state legislature.

By a 53-40 party-line vote Tuesday the Democratic controlled assembly practically cleared the decks of pending legislation—except for budget balancing tax measures.

Major bills killed would have repealed the 15-cent-a-pound tax on oleomargarine, set a $2 sticker fee for state park visitors, exempted unemployment compensation from state income taxes and put one-half the proceeds from the state liquor tax into the veterans housing trust fund.

Stay in Committee

Meanwhile, the Republican controlled senate agreed that the 27 bills pending in that house, would remain in committee. This would keep them alive but none probably will be brought out unless an individual sponsor of a measure is able to muster enough strength to get them up for floor consideration. This frequently is difficult to do.

The 63 bills in the two houses represent about $34 million in additional state spending. All were laid over July 26 when the legislature recessed.

The Republican minority in the assembly succeeded in getting action on 15 amendments to the resolution killing the bills. The controlling Democrats, however, managed to kill off all of them. The amendments were aimed at pulling out some of the bills for consideration.

Others Killed

Other measures killed by the assembly action would have:

Granted $600 a mile in additional highway aid to townships for roads used as school bus routes.

Set up a procedure for farmers to straighten navigable streams.

Levied school taxes on state-owned fishing grounds.

Nab Man Wanted For Questioning In Desert Murder

Riverside, Calif. — (AP) — Tord Ove Zeppenfeld, unhappy, unshaven and unkempt, is behind bars today.

The 21-year-old Stockholm-born youth with the yen for cowboy clothes is accused of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution in the bludgeoning slaying of Mrs. Lillian Lenorak, 42, a redheaded Hollywood divorcee.

"I'll say one thing," he sobbed at his arraignment in Yuma, Ariz., last night. "I'm ashamed of what I have done."

He gave no further explanation. The FBI refused to say whether he made a statement about the slaying. Bond was set at $100,000. He was to be returned to Riverside county jail today.

Mrs. Lenorak's savagely beaten body was found on a seldom-traveled desert road near Palm Springs Nov. 8—the day Zeppenfeld's mother reported him missing.

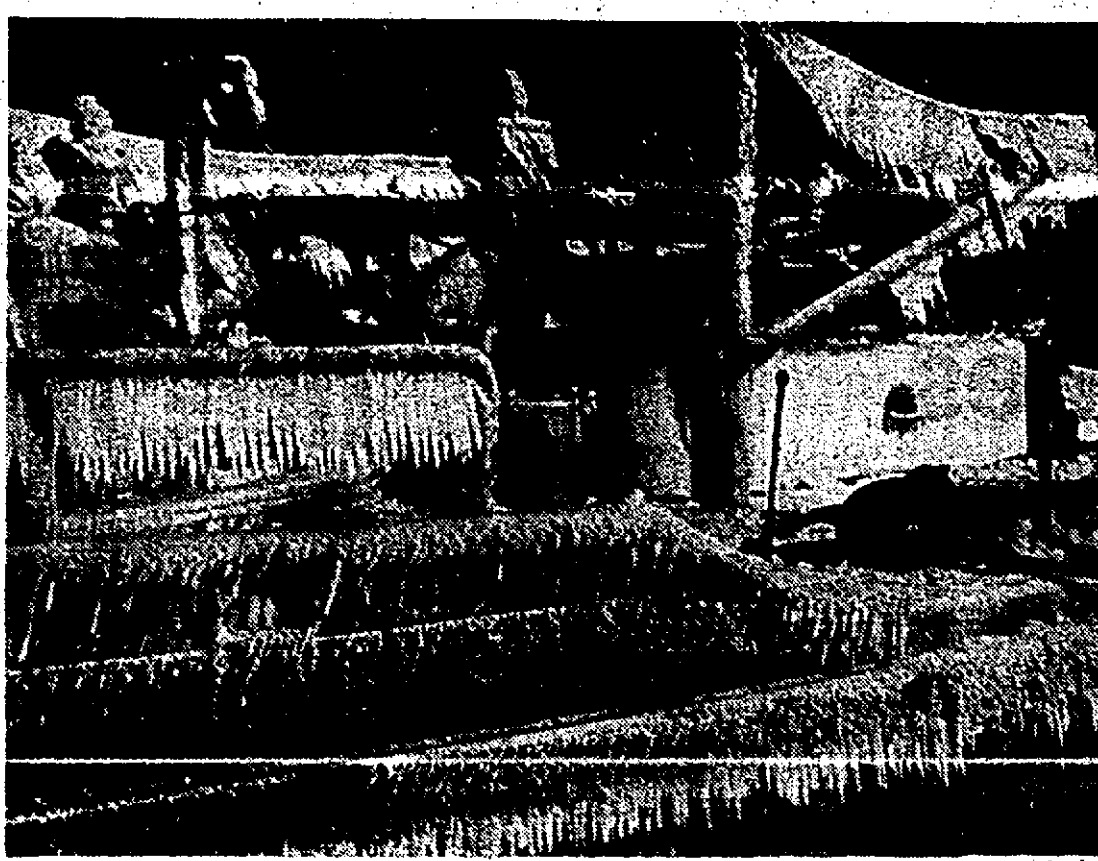

The mother, Mrs. Vega Zeppenfeld, a former Swedish Olympic diving and swimming star, owns a $100,000 hotel in Palm Springs.

Chinese Reds Have Built 2 Airfields

New Delhi — (AP) — The Chinese communists have built two airfields in the disputed border area of Ladakh, according to unconfirmed reports from the high mountain land in northern India.

The Chinese claim and control approximately 8,000 square miles of Ladakh, an area of Kashmir which India considers hers. Both nations have been sending troops into the area, but the high altitude, winter conditions and lack of roads restricts movement.

Reports reaching Srinagar, capital of Kashmir, said one airstrip was built in the Aksai Chin area of eastern Ladakh, through which the Chinese built a military highway several years ago.

The second airstrip reportedly is near Chusul, where India has an airstrip. Chinese troops are reported dug in for the winter on a hill a few miles east of Chusul.

Military officials in New Delhi said they had no specific information on the red airstrips. Chinese planes were seen in the area more than a month ago, but no flights have been reported lately, the officials said.

They added that development of simple landing strips on the barren Ladakh plateau would be relatively easy in many places, but winter snows and high altitude would make operations difficult.

South American Composer's Body Lies in State

Rio de Janeiro — (AP) — The body of Heitor Villa-Lobos, South America's most noted composer, lay in state today in the ministry of education.

Villa-Lobos died Tuesday at his home here of a kidney ailment.

He was born in Rio de Janeiro at a time when the city kept no birth records and listed his age variously at from 72 to 78 years.

Villa-Lobos was the author of more than 1,000 compositions, including a series of "Bachianas Brasileiras" for orchestra, some with voice; a series of "Choros," a word he invented and five operas.

He found his chief musical inspiration in Brazil's complex culture, with its Portuguese, African and Indian strains. But he used these folk themes and rhythms with great variety, sometime showing the influence of the French impressionists, sometime employing ferocious dissonances and again fusing all into an idiom distinctly his own.

Marine Corps Seeking End to Its Manpower Ceiling of 175,000

Need 200,000 to Keep Divisions Combat Ready, General Declares

Washington — (AP) — The marine corps is hoping again for congressional support to lift the 175,000 manpower ceiling imposed by the administration.

"We need 200,000 men," Brig. Gen. Lewis C. Hudson, assistant chief of staff, told newsmen in outlining the corps' present ability and future hopes. And its wishful thinking calls for at least 235,000 men to keep its divisions fully manned and equipped.

Congress several times has provided sufficient funds to increase the marine corps to 200,000 men, but the administration has impounded the extra money and held the corps to the 175,000-man ceiling it had recommended. Next year's budget is understood to provide once again for 175,000 marines.

Outline Plans

Gen. Hudson and other marine staff officers at the briefing declined to take issue with budget decisions, but they outlined plans which called for more manpower even as they told of the corps' present strength.

At Camp Lejeune, N. C., the Second division has at all times a battalion force of about 1,800 men on a 15-minute alert for movement anywhere in the Atlantic or European area.

With three aircraft carriers adapted to leatherneck needs, three additional battalions can be launched simultaneously by helicopter over or around enemy defenses and fight with atomic or conventional firepower.

By 1962, when the corps gets the first of its specially designed and equipped assault carriers and landing ships capable of launching both helicopters and surface landing craft, the marines will be able to put up to 10,000 men ashore.

Woman Dies Of Freezing In Chicago

Chicago — (AP) — One of two women found nearly frozen died today in a hospital. The other remained in fair condition.

The woman who did not survive exposure was Miss Marilyn Johnson, 32, who reportedly was subject to occasional epileptic seizures. She was found Tuesday in her south side apartment. She was clad in night clothes, the windows were partly open and the heat turned off.

Two hours after she was brought to Chicago Osteopathic hospital Miss Johnson's temperature was 66 degrees. By this morning her temperature had risen to 87 degrees, about 11 below normal.

Hospital authorities said Miss Johnson, part owner of an employment agency, had been exposed to the cold for 12 hours.

Earlier, Mrs. Jewel Dean Pounds, 48, was found on a second-floor outside porch of a west side apartment building. Her body temperature which was taken several hours after she arrived at Cook County hospital was 79 degrees but it was near normal this morning. Police said Mrs. Pounds, a factory worker, told them two men had beaten and robbed her and left her on the porch.

Bound Over in Police Shooting

Milwaukee — (AP) — Sam Diclaula sobbed "I wish I'd been killed" as he waived preliminary hearing Tuesday on charges of attempting to murder a policeman and armed robbery.

District Judge Robert W. Hansen bound the 27-year-old Diclaula over to municipal court for trial under bond of $25,000.

Diclaula said he did not remember shooting Patrolman Ronald Krusick, 25, in an early morning gun battle Monday. The patrolman was shot in both shoulders but managed to subdue Diclaula. Krusick was reported in good condition in a hospital.

Actor Collapses On Movie Set

Hollywood — (AP) — Comedian Jerry Lewis collapsed on a movie set after rushing up a flight of stairs several times Tuesday.

A heart attack was at first feared, but his physician later blamed over exertion.

The 33-year-old actor was given oxygen and went back to work after resting two hours.

with his own hands over a period of seven years. A newspaper article last March about Australia excited their interest. They wrote the Australian consul in San Francisco and after an exchange of letters were told they would be welcome as permanent visitors. "It just started to snowball," Emery explained. "First we said that if Australia would accept us as possible immigrants we'd go; if not, to heck with it.

Sold Home Quickly

"Then when that came through we thought of selling the house. If it didn't go quickly we'd back out. A buyer snapped it right up. "That was the big step. I got a 6-month leave from my job. Then we sold our belongings—some at auction, some to our friends. When it was all over we had about $7,000—all the money we had in the world. We budgeted $5,000 for the trip, and almost kept to it."

A 30-day voyage by freighter, starting July 14, took them to Honolulu, the Fiji islands, then Australia. They remained five weeks in Sydney. After that came a 43-day trip by passenger liner around Australia to Ceylon, India, Arabia, the Suez canal, through the Mediterranean to southern France, Gibraltar, and London.

The Emerys have moved in temporarily with his in-laws, but plan to start building another house on a lot they own, doing the work themselves.

"We're going to start planning right away for another trip," said Mrs. Emery. "We want to see the Orient and Africa. Maybe if we build another good house and can sell it, why in 10 years or less."

been told by ABC to either give up his outside business interests or his television shows.

Clark rose quickly to fame with his nationally televised disc jockey show, "American Bandstand." He's also master of ceremonies on the Saturday night "Dick Clark Show" from New York and he appears on a Sunday panel show.

Clark dropped the business interests: One-third ownership in a Philadelphia record company, and interests in three music publishing companies.

New Policy Set Up

ABC said Clark "volunteered" to divest himself of these interests in line with a new policy "whereby performers and others who select and play records will be required to divest themselves of all interests in the recording, music publishing and allied fields."

ABC said it is investigating all its disc jockey shows.

The new policy was considered a result of the house subcommittee's disc jockey investigation.

The producer of "Bandstand," Anthony Marmarella, was given the same choice as Clark. He resigned as producer of both "American Bandstand" and Clark's Saturday night variety show.

Marmarella said that he, too, owned a third of the record company and that it had issued several hit tunes in recent years.

The tunes, Marmarella said, were played on "American Bandstand," but only because "they were hit tunes."

The affidavit, required of students applying for federal education loans, states that the applicant does not believe in, belong to, or support "any organization that believes in or teaches the overthrow of the United States government by force or violence or by any illegal or unconstitutional means."

Griswold and Pusey made their announcements yesterday independently of each other. But it was learned that the two presidents had talked the matter over by telephone yesterday. They had been discussing the affidavit for several months.

weakness, prompted the proposal for total disarmament he presented to the United Nations during his U.S. visit.

Khrushchev said he was empowered to "sign immediately" a disarmament agreement during his American visit.

"I believe that the president (Eisenhower) also wants this," he continued, "but apparently he cannot do it because there are still strong quarters in the United States opposing disarmament."

He listed New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller among those who would "turn back the pointer of the barometer which is tending towards the lessening of international tension."

Police Guard House Probe In Puerto Rico

San Juan, Puerto Rico—(AP)—Strong police guards were set up around all government buildings today to guard against demonstrations during two days of hearings by a U.S. House Un-American Activities subcommittee.

The committee, investigating communist activities among Puerto Ricans, arrived last night from New York where it opened the hearings.

All police leaves were canceled after an announcement by the Nationalist Independence party that it will set up picket lines outside the federal district court building, scene of the hearings.

Police officials said the nationalists may attempt an uprising to protest the hearings.

A committee member, Rep. Gordon H. Scherer (R-Ohio), said the committee expects to find more evidence of "a Caribbean-wide pattern of communist infiltration into groups that seek a change in the political status quo."

robbed and the district attorney might have additional charges to present to the grand jury.

People Arm Selves

Monaghan said he believed the arrests had calmed the populace of the area which, since the stabbings, had bought out several merchants' stocks of pistols and shotgun ammunition.

Mayor James Ballard had tried to prevent any violence by appealing to the public not "to take action personally."

To aid the hunt for the Negroes and to calm residents, Ballard issued arms to firemen and about 50 white men.

The Mississippi branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People had criticized Ballard's action, calling it deplorable.

Jones' statement said he had not mentioned his plans to cut a white person to either Carrothers or J. B. Little.

They were walking along the streets, Jones said, when they saw Dodson.

Decided on Assault

"I said to J. B. and T. L., 'Let's get him.' They said OK. The three of us walked up behind him. I caught his arm and he stopped and turned around, and I said, 'Where you going?' and he asked what we thought we were doing and I said, 'Don't get smart.' Jones' statement continued.

"Then I hit him with my fist, and he almost fell and I ran my hand in my right coat pocket and he started to hit me and I blocked the lick and cut him on his right hand. I cut him again around the shoulder.

"I don't know which hand or shoulder it was. After I cut the white man, T.L. swung at him with a knife. I do not know if he hit him or not. T. L. swung at him once or twice. J.B. hit him with his fist."

Jones said Dodson then started running. They chased him until he ran between two houses.

All three victims were reported in fair condition.

received $160,000, said it will return most of another $50,000 to which it is entitled.

The two schools are not the first to take exception to the affidavit. Bryn Mawr, Haverford and Swarthmore, all located near Philadelphia, refused to enter the program at the start.

Atomic Waste Stirred to Ocean Surface

London—(AP)—A Soviet scientist today asserted radioactive wastes will be stirred to the surface of oceans by underwater currents even if buried in the supposedly stagnant deeps.

The scientist, N. Bogorov, said "he reached this conclusion" after special research carried out by the oceanographic ship Vityaz, now in the Indian ocean.

Bogorov, who heads the expedition, was quoted by the news agency Tass as saying: "There are no stagnant zones in the ocean. The water circulates everywhere, down to the ocean floor."

"Thus, radioactive wastes dissolved in water at great depths will not remain there, but will quickly rise to the surface."

"Strontium 90 and other radioactive substances will be assimilated by plankton, then by plankton-eating fish, and will become a hazard to human life." Both the United States and Great Britain seal atomic wastes in steel drums and dump it in the ocean.

Lawrence Says

Distortion of Judicial Power Invites Critics

Supreme Court Has Become Author of

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington — Lawyers in many parts of the country are expressing surprise at the reasoning used by Justice Douglas of the Supreme court in his dissenting opinion in the steel case. They say justices consider themselves writers of legislation rather than judicial rulings and as exponents of what the law ought to be rather than what it is in the light of previous decisions.

Justice Douglas contradicted the reasoning he himself used when he spoke for the majority of the court in a case decided 15 years ago. Justice Douglas didn't agree with the eight justices that an 80-day court injunction was necessary in the steel strike. He said, "There is nothing in this record to sustain the conclusion that it is necessary to send 500,000 men back to work to give the defense department all it needs for the nation's 'safety.'"

Previous Decision
Justice Douglas seemed to think a blanket injunction might be unnecessary and only a portion of the strikers need return to work. In the 1944 case, known as Bowles V. Willingham, Justice Douglas took a different view of blanket injunctions. The case involved the rent-control provisions of the emergency price control act. This law was not unconstitutional, said the Douglas opinion, just because it required the administrator to fix maximum rents which were generally fair and equitable instead of applying the fair and equitable test to each individual landlord. The landlord got no hearing before the administrator issued his rent-control order, and he was limited solely to judicial review after the order fixing his rent became effective. Justice Douglas called this "due process". Justice Douglas is today disturbed that a whole class of workers might be injured by a blanket injunction. Yet, when dealing with "landlords," he was not concerned that individual property owners might suffer by a broad rent-control order.

Defense Needs
Ordering men to work in only a few plants, disregards the risks in selecting which plants and what supplies shall be favored. There is no provision in existing law which empowers the president to engage in any such discrimination. The government depends on the steel industry as a whole to supply defense needs, and there is no way of knowing in advance the damage that might be done by letting some steel plants operate and others stay closed.

Justice Douglas was quite ready to turn this whole matter over to the district court. He conceded that the lower court might find "the only way to remove the peril to national safety caused by the strike was to issue the broad, blanket injunction." But Justice Douglas would have sent the case back for redetermination as to which plants should be reopened. He wasn't as solicitous of the rights of property owners when in 1944 he did not urge that each case be tried on its merits and no blanket order be issued.

It is precisely this distortion of judicial power which has occasioned much of the criticism of the present supreme court. There is no way of knowing what is the "settled law". Too much support is given to the fallacy that the justices may in each case disregard rulings and precedents of the past and proclaim what the law should be or what the constitution ought to say. There can be no lasting confidence in a shifting judiciary.

Less Congressional Secrecy

It is interesting to note that the continuing pressure for the conduct of public business in public is having some effect. The Congressional Quarterly, Inc., an organization that keeps tab on the happenings in Congress, reports that the public and the press were barred from less than 30 per cent of the congressional committee meetings during the first session of the 86th Congress. On that basis there were fewer secret meetings of congressional committees during 1959 than at any time since Congressional Quarterly began to keep score in 1953.

Sevellon Brown, editor of the Providence, R. I., Journal and Bulletin said of the report, "The downward trend in closed congressional committee meetings as recorded by Congressional Quarterly should be gratifying to every newspaper and newspaperman in the country. It should be remembered, however, that the fight against government secrecy is not ended. It will be the job of a free American press to see that the trend continues."

Of course, newspaper folks will be as gratified at the lifting of secrecy in Congress as they would be over the lifting of secrecy anywhere. Nevertheless, it should be emphasized that it is not the newspapermen or the newspaper publishers who are helped most when the veil of secrecy is lifted from governmental activities.

People most helped by full publication of the facts are the citizens. The objection to secrecy is based largely upon the fact that legislation is prepared and put into final shape by the House and Senate committees before it reaches the floor of either house. The committee chairmen have the authority to decide when committees meet and whether the sessions are open or closed. The fact that the proceedings may be announced later or that formal action may be taken at a later open committee meeting does not answer the objections, of the press and the public. It is pointed out that the secret meetings conceal the important discussions on such legislation which is necessary to a proper understanding of the legislation itself. The American people who must be guided by the legislation are entitled to know the arguments that were made for and against such legislation and upon which the decisions of the committee may have turned.

Even today in attempts to understand some of the provisions of the constitution of the United States, it often is necessary to go back to the debate that was held on such provisions. By following them it is possible to understand why a provision was worded as it is. Sometimes it helps immensely to know that the authors of the constitution had before them several alternative provisions but eliminated many and centered on one. Omissions are sometimes as important to know about as the wording of the provision itself.

This same reasoning holds true on meetings of boards and commissions of local government and it is largely for this reason that objections are made to consideration in private of legislation by such boards and commissions. Aside from all this of course, is the unanswerable argument that public business affects the rights of the public and there seldom is a time when the people would be better off by being kept ignorant of the details of the discussion which resulted in the final act.

The Steel Strike Is Not Settled

The steel plant employees are back at work under an injunction upheld by the United States Supreme Court. However, they are returning to work for only 80 days and at the end of that period it is possible they will resume the strike. In the meantime negotiations to end the strike will continue. President Eisenhower has called upon both sides to continue their efforts and to reach a settlement as soon as possible. At the same time the President's fact finding board will continue its public hearings in an effort to guide the union and management negotiators. After 60 days the board of inquiry must report to the President on the situation as it stands at that time. The report will include a statement as to management's latest offer and within 15 days after the report the workers must vote whether to accept. If they reject it the injunction is lifted and within five days they are free to resume the strike.

The current steel strike is the seventeenth labor dispute in which the emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act have been brought into use. The current strike was 116 days old before it was ended by injunction. It is rated as one of the most damaging strikes in the history of the United States. Of the 17 cases calling on the Taft-Hartley machinery four were settled before an injunction was issued. In six of the others settlements were reached during the injunction period and of the seven remaining five were settled after a vote was taken on management's final offer. In each case the result of the vote was overwhelming rejection of the offer and settlement came after the injunction had been dissolved. In two other cases the injunctions still are in force, one issued in the dock dispute and the other in the present steel case.

What will happen in this case is of course anybody's guess but in spite of the

Canine Reflections

An editor's desk, in addition to being somewhat untidy, is transformed, usually, by daily mail and press dispatches into a sort of oaken encyclopedia over which filters news both great and humble.

The great news events of the day, by their very nature, are given to arousing provocative thought but every so often there appears an item of little import which stirs the imagination.

Such an item came the other day from the National Dog Week association which pointed out that there are now some 25 million dogs in the United States. The thought occurs, then, that hardly a day goes by that the ordinary individual doesn't use such expressions as "dog days," "doggone," "gay dog," "puppy love," "dog tired," "raining cats and dogs," etc.

The dog, as you can readily see, is with us almost daily. Man's best friend, in fact, might be looked on as a sort of "bone-us" for all humanity.

The term "dog days" stems from the ancient reckoning that the rising of the dog star Sirius with the rising of the sun brought about the hot, sultry part of late summer.

A socially acceptable substitute for profanity, "doggone," comes from the old Scotch curse, "dog on it."

A fellow who kicks up his heels is a "gay dog." If he feels "sick as a dog" the morning after a big night he may try to cure his hangover with "the hair of the dog" (a small drink of the beverage responsible for his condition).

Young people often suffer from "puppy love." A confidence man may be "crooked as a dog's hind leg."

"Dog tired" can be traced to Shakespeare who used the term "dog-weary" to describe a person tired as a dog after a long chase. This reference, by the way, came in his play, Taming of the Shrew.

And it was Jonathan Swift who penned the famous prediction, "It would rain cats and dogs." It is not recorded as fact but the thought no doubt came to Swift after he stepped in a "poodle" of water.

Vermont Mayors Set Precedence For Congressmen

From The Birmingham News

It isn't likely that two Vermont mayors, by their explosive disgust at the program arranged for them as civilian observers at a rocketry meeting at Tyndall Air Force base, have contributed anything of significance to the nation's military security.

The New Englanders evidently expected to be combining flame-spouting missiles and rockets out of their hair within 15 minutes of arrival at the base. When what they found more closely resembled a hardware dealers' convention their shock and amazement exploded into nationwide headlines.

The major repercussion will probably be a long-distance one among air force public relations personnel. Offering a man a ride in a jet airplane is a pretty poor substitute for a space version of D-day at Normandy beach, we'll all have to admit.

The biggest boon to the taxpayers that will come out of the incident is likely to be the contribution they made to the national treasure by paying their own way from Florida back to Vermont. That demonstrates a sincerity in their expressed concern for the U. S. taxpayer that merits commendation.

People's Forum

Too Much Emotionalism in Answers to Ralph Frakes' Letter

Editor, Post-Crescent:

When I read Ralph Frakes' letter in the People's Forum, my first thought was that here was a man who believed enough in his own convictions to let the city of Appleton read them. There are not too many people who would be willing to face a storm of public opinion against them as this man has. No one has the right to call a person's beliefs "prejudiced, one-sided, nonsensical buffoonery..." This is unthinking and unjust.

I was also appalled by the way these people, who wrote rebuttals to Mr. Frakes' letter, seem to degrade a higher education, calling the University of Wisconsin a "Madison degree factory." I've noticed, as a college student myself, that there seems to be an inborn distrust in many people of the so-called "eggheads." These people unwittingly uphold Ralph Frakes' conviction that the citizens of the Fox River Valley are dogmatic and rigid in their beliefs.

I believe that a fair and open mind is essential to our way of life. Obviously, these people attacked Mr. Frakes with their emotions, and logical, clear-cut thinking took a back seat. The whole idea of McCarthy is emotional. Only the cold eye of time will reveal him as a great man or a supreme heel. I personally am willing to wait.

I was really sorry to see that this one (Mr. Prosser's) letter could bring out all the prejudices and arrogances that seem to be present in our society today. I greatly admire Mr. Frakes for writing as he did. And may I say that the Post-Crescent's heading (Ralph Frakes' Letter Wins Him No Friends in the Fox Cities) was wrong. I would consider it a privilege to be counted as a friend, if only because he had the courage to stand up for his beliefs.

Sees Need for Enlightenment

Editor, Post-Crescent:

An open letter to Mr. Ralph F. Frakes in care of the editors of the Appleton Post-Crescent:

Dear Mr. Frakes:

As a former resident of the Appleton area, your letter in this newspaper was a bit amusing to me.

It is apparent from your letter that there are certain areas in recent history which demand your investigation for your own enlightenment.

First of all, you can write to the Library of Congress and obtain the transcripts of the hearings and investigations conducted by the late Sen. McCarthy. Read this information for your own enlightenment. Your present and past source of information appears to be columnists such as: Drew Pearson, The Alsop Brothers, Walter Lippmann etc., who have a knack for twisting and distorting the truth. Incidentally, the word, "McCarthyism" was coined by the communists, namely, "The Daily Worker" formerly in New York and now in Chicago.

On the matter of Vice President Nixon, there is another glaring "dead spot" in your knowledge of recent history. This past summer at the American exhibition in Moscow, Vice President Nixon was the first American of significance to stand up to Khrushchev and win admiration and praise not only in this country, but, throughout the world for the manner in which he conducted himself. For this, Americans can be proud!

The public well remembers the covering of Sen. Humphrey, Averill Harriman, and Adlai Stevenson (who, it appears, are classified as great by you, Mr. Frakes) when they individually had met with Khrushchev. They chose not to stand up to Khrushchev. It appears your biggest haunt is that Vice President Nixon can win if he is nominated for president.

Just how strong are the Left Wing Liberals in American politics at the present time? They appear to be dying in the Republican party. In the Democratic party, they are so divided that, thus far, they have not been able to push their socialistic programs through congress. The last statement is very important because the public by their letters, cards, and telegrams of protest is primarily responsible for the check of the left wing legislative program in congress. The American public can especially take credit for the passage of the "Landrum-

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of Nov. 20, 1880.

Articles of association of the Marshfield and Neilville railroad were filed in the office of the secretary of state in Madison today. The road will run from Marshfield in Wood county to Neilville in Clark county.

The capital stock is $500,000. The incorporators are A. L. Smith, I. P. Beach and H. C. Sloan, Appleton; A. J. Webster, Neenah; A. Syme, Menasha; Philetus Sawyer, Oshkosh; William M. Upham, Marshfield; D. Syme and B. J. Stevens, Madison.

It is expected the road will be constructed at once.

Wednesday, Nov. 14, 1934

Reorganization of the museum on the third floor of Science hall at Lawrence college was undertaken by David Delo, new instructor in geology.

Mrs. W. S. Ryan, Appleton, spoke at the World Fellowship tea at the Y.W.C.A. at Green Bay. Mrs. Ryan, who spent 13 years in Japan, was an active volunteer in both Tokyo and Kobe YWCA and served one year on the board of directors of the Kobe YWCA.

Miss Gertrude Plank and George Theiss won first prize for north and south in the contract bridge tournament sponsored by Campion Mothers' club.

A mock radio program was presented at a meeting of the Appleton High school German club. Der Deutsche Verein, at the high school Monday. William Spector was the announcer and the entire program was given in German.

The county unit system of relief was thoroughly aired at that morning's session of the Outagamie county board at the courthouse when Harry McLogan, a member of the Wisconsin Industrial commission, appeared before the supervisors to discuss the plan.

Political Life Really Exhausting Experience

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — When Mayor Zeidler of Milwaukee abruptly and surprisingly declared not long ago that he did not intend to run for another term of office, he explained rather plaintively the "exhaustion" that is a part of the high and competitive political office.

Perhaps many ordinary citizens, who observe the doings of their political representatives only casually in the news columns, will find it difficult to appreciate that the high public officeholder after a time may suffer from spiritual as well as physical exhaustion.

But there are many ranking politicians of the state, now in office or retired, who know exactly what the mayor was talking about, as well as many others whose business it is to keep abreast of public affairs by constant attendance upon the activities of political and governmental leaders.

The fantastic pressure of daily decision making, of endless schedules of interviews and of public hearings and meetings is arduous enough. But even more wearying are the ceremonial aspects of public office, the traveling, the speech-making, the hand-shaking that is expected of the public man who has a decent respect for votes and a realistic understanding of how they are won and harvested.

THE DEMANDS

Americans have a peculiarly contradictory attitude about their public men. They demand from them first rate performance at their desks, on the one hand, and constant availability for outside exposure on the other.

The Milwaukee mayor's task is probably difficult enough. We suspect that it is similar to that of a governor of Wisconsin, the difficulties of which are reasonably apparent after a long period of watching the work and the experience of 10 occupants of that office.

Not one of them, in all likelihood, would seriously dispute the probability that his life expectancy was shortened by the rigors of the experience.

The state executive can plead that he has a cruel list of official meetings and appointments before him, but the secretary of the Prairie-

Griffith Labor Reform Bill" in congress.

Jacob B. Koss
(Formerly of Route 4, Appleton
341 West Windsor St.,
Reading, Pa.

ville "Advancement" association wants the governor to make a speech and won't be denied. Some of them are denied, out of necessity of time and the limits of physical endurance, but the governor dare not decline too often for fear of causing resentments that will count against him in the next campaign. It also is extremely difficult to refuse the plea of somebody who has invested money, time and more on his behalf in the last election.

Changing times have made the task more difficult. There was a time when a politician could make one speech for a hundred separate appearances. Today's efficient communications make that dangerous.

When the postman handled communications between the politician and his constituents there was more opportunity for delay and evasion of such chores. Today the governor is within reach of anybody who wants to invest the price of a couple of cocktails in a telephone coin slot.

A TALE

When Oscar Rennebohm abruptly announced in 1950 that he intended to quit being governor after less than four years there was some surprise. The full story of that incident has not been told, perhaps never will be told. But there is at least a good chance that the real explanation related to the "exhaustion" about which the Milwaukee mayor talked. It is known that it was impulsive. The governor was making a speech he hadn't wanted to make, in a hot basement hall to a crowd that wasn't especially appreciative. He was tired. As he concluded he was called to the telephone. A leading politician wanted to know whether the governor had made up his mind about running again. Yes, he had decided, not to run again. The politician reported the story to the newspapers, and Rennebohm found himself committed to a decision he might not have made under other circumstances.

Say Alfalfa Blossoms Slap Honey Bees

From The Wilmington Delaware Morning News

When talk gets around to flowers we are willing to stand firmly behind Miss Stein's most quoted line: "A rose is a rose is..." But let it get more technical and we leave it to the experts.

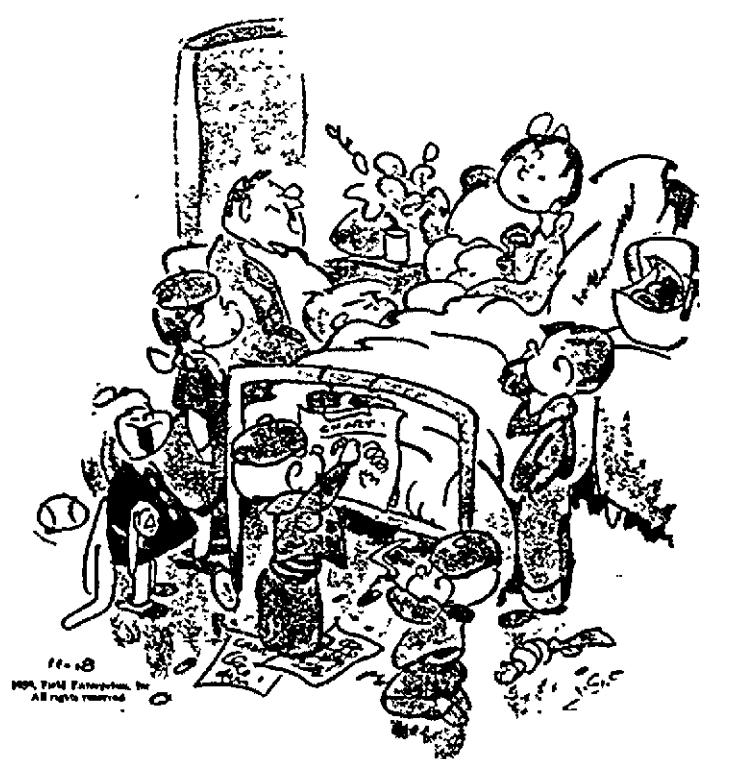

So the claim made in Washington state that alfalfa blossoms there are booby-trapping bees may be true, for all we know.

The state investigated reports that doctors in the northwest's lower Yakima valley area have been having to treat more bee stings than in the past. The initial disclosure was that the offending bees were zooming out of alfalfa fields an dive-bombing unoffending humans. Finally an expert — or he should be, since he's the keeper of some 250 colonies of bees — gave this explanation: Alfalfa blossoms have a device that slaps a heavy-footed bee right in the puss.

We bow to superior knowledge, we guess. On the face of things we just can't understand why these blossoms never used that Sunday punch before. But we don't blame the bees for being mad. Any alfalfa blossom that wants to stay out of trouble hadn't better slap us.

This 66-Year-Old Home that is being razed on W. Front street has a link with Appleton's earliest history. The land has belonged to a member of the Pierce family since 1847. The nearby area, including Pierce park, once was part of Pierce's woods, where Appletonians of a bygone day used to hold civic celebrations, picnics and other celebrations. The home was built in 1893 by Humphrey Pierce as a wedding present to his son, Dudley, and his bride.

50 Pct. AHS Class of '59 Now in College

Highest Total on Record; Others All Employed

A record of 50 per cent of the Appleton High school graduates of June, 1959, now are attending college, according to a survey made by Miss Annabelle Wolf, dean of girls. Since 1955, the number has risen almost 10 per cent. It is 3 per cent higher than in 1958, when 47.3 per cent continued their education.

The number attending schools of higher learning is 228 out of the 459 in the class, or 50.8 per cent.

47 at UW
Ninety - one are attending universities, with 47 at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, another 17 at the University extension in Menasha and four at the UW-M in Milwaukee.

Thirty-three are at state colleges, and 56 at colleges throughout the United States. Ten are enrolled at Lawrence college and 10 at St. Norbert college in DePere. Sixteen are enrolled in hospitals or schools for nurses' training with four at Theda Clark hospital for training in practical nursing. The percentage of students entering nurses' training is slightly higher than last year, but there are more students going on to technical, trade or business training than in past years. Thirty-two students are at these latter named schools.

For the first time since the survey has been made there are no graduates unemployed. Last year 10 graduates were among those unemployed and in previous years at least three were unemployed.

72 Have Office Work
There are 72 graduates working at office jobs, or 16 per cent of the class. This number is larger than in previous years except in 1955, when there were 86, or 23 per cent, employed in offices.

The number entering military service is about the same as last year. From the class of '59, there are 38 in the service compared to 35 last year. Those who have gone into mill and factory work also number 38, or 8.4 per cent of the class. This is almost double those of last year but is one short of the 5-year high of 39 in 1957.

24 Salesmen
About the same number as in other years have gone into selling. This year 24 students or 5.3 per cent of the class are in sales, compared to 19 or 4.7 per cent in 1958.

Six students became telephone operators, the same number as last year. In 1957 there were 14. There were six graduates who married, compared to seven last year and 12 in 1956, the high for the 5-year period.

Each year a follow-up study of the graduating class is made in order to learn what has happened to each student and to determine what fields of work or training are most popular. This study is valuable for guidance purposes as well as being a check on the school's graduates.

State Cigaret Sales Above National Norm

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau
Madison — Cigaret sales in Wisconsin are gaining at a rate far ahead of the national average, the Wisconsin Food and Tobacco Institute has reported.

National sales for the first nine months of the year are 2.8 per cent ahead of the level of last year, while Wisconsin sales have gained 6.7 per cent for the same period. The Wisconsin sale increase is the equivalent of 20 million packages.

hard to establish an orphanage in Appleton, becoming secretary and treasurer of the citizens' organization to promote the idea. In 1888, Pierce donated the Fifth street property on which the 3-story home was built the same year. The orphan's home was in existence for 15 years, when its functions were taken over by a state agency.

Today, the Humphrey Pierce home still stands as one of Appleton's residential landmarks on the northeast corner of S. Locust street and W. Prospect avenue. But the house he built a few blocks away for his son and daughter-in-law is coming down.

windowed and multiple-porched white frame residence at 805 W. Front street, built high on the bluff overlooking the Fox river in 1893 as a wedding present for Dudley Pierce and his bride. Humphrey Pierce, the bridegroom's father and one of Appleton's most illustrious citizens, had it built.

It was in this home that Dudley's five children and Humphrey's grandchildren were born and reared. They are Dudley H. Pierce, now of San Francisco, Calif., the late Eugene Pierce, Mrs. Charles Passmore, Park Ridge, Ill., Mrs. Virginia Nabbefeld and Mrs. Carl D. Neidhold. Mrs. Nabbefeld lived in the family home until last summer.

Although the age of the house spans about 66 years, it is linked in history to an earlier Appleton. The land on which it stands has been in the Pierce family since 1847, when Appleton was beginning its settlement around Lawrence university.

John Pierce, Humphrey's uncle, was one of the early settlers. He and Humphrey's father, Charles, were cousins of Franklin Pierce, president of the United States from 1853 to 1857.

John Pierce's original land holdings in Appleton stretched from the old Lawrence street ravine westward. The present Front street area and Pierce park were once a part of Pierce's woods, an important place in the lives of early Appleton folks.

Pierce's woods used to be a familiar picnic grounds for church and fraternal organizations; - political parades used to march there for great rallies; it was the scene of Sunday school gatherings, civic celebrations and family reunions.

New England born Humphrey came to make his home with his uncle in 1861 after the death of his father in Illinois. He became a science student at Lawrence university and then returned to the east to study law at Harvard university. Two years after his graduation in 1866, he returned to Appleton to practice law.

Besides his wide interests in Appleton business and manufacturing, Humphrey made a name for himself in politics and government. He served the city as its attorney and alderman, he became district attorney in 1872 and 1873 and was elected mayor for two succeeding terms in 1880 and for a third time in 1893.

During his first two terms, the city's cash balance reached a new record high of $19,000, slaughtering houses were ordered outside the city limits, a general plan for a sewerage system was adopted, a board of public works was organized and a contract was signed for a municipal waterworks, although citizens voted against a city-owned waterworks by a 582 to 560 vote in 1881.

He was sent to the state legislature in 1882, where he made known his bitter opposition to railroad land grants. In 1884 he was chosen a delegate to the state Democratic convention.

His interest in Appleton extended beyond governmental activities. He served the old Third ward for many years as a school board member and president. He also worked

GOP Collects Its '60 Election Issues

Minority Forces Roll Call Votes As Democrats Kill Touchy Bills

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — Minority Republican in the Wisconsin state assembly gleefully worked Tuesday to create campaign issues for the 1960 elections and there wasn't much that the majority Democrats could do about it.

Republicans spent the day in forcing roll call votes, reference materials for the political speeches of next summer and fall, on some of the issues that the Democrats had hoped to dispose of quietly, without much public attention.

The strategy of the Democratic majority had called for killing on mass a bundle of proposals that had been laid over from the legislative session earlier this year, including some that contained a good deal of political dynamite.

They had the power to carry their wish, but they couldn't find a way to prevent the Republicans from offering individual amendments providing the roll calls for the record.

Debate Rolls On
Nor could they stifle debate. They tried to shorten the proceedings, and the accompanying publicity, by sitting silently while the Republicans made their speeches, as the next best alternative.

Among the bills the Democrats managed to kill during the day were some extremely sensitive proposals—a transfer of $10,000,000 to the state veterans' housing fund which doesn't have enough money to honor all applications for housing loans, a plan to increase pensions for many public school teachers, a proposition to increase the facilities at the crowded state parks and others.

The Republicans obviously intend that their amendments to except some of those propositions from the general rejection motion of the Democratic leadership will be useful in the next campaign.

Pressure Groups
Some of the pressure groups involved, including the veterans' organizations and the professional education societies, are among the most po-

Committee Refuses Policy Change for Richmond Snow Work

A change in the policy for snow removal along the west side of Richmond street between Wisconsin avenue and Parkway boulevard has been denied by the city council's street and sanitation committee.

Ald. Gerald Wagner at the last council meeting asked that owners of three homes on the west be exempt from snow removal assessment charges. Monday, at the street committee meeting, he said there was no benefit to the three homeowners by city removal of snow from the street in front of their houses.

Committeemen did not argue the point. Instead they confined their remarks to pointing out that the move would result in hopscotching of service along the west side since if the city was not paid, it would not remove the snow.

tent and attentive in state politics and were directly involved in the bills that were killed.

On several occasions the Democrats were in the position of putting to death proposals that originally had been offered by their own house leaders, and on one occasion, a proposition that was specifically proposed in the last Democratic party platform, the Republicans chor-

The insistence of Assembly Speaker George Molinaro and Majority Leader Keith Hardie upon killing the bills as a package was explained as a contribution to shortening the fall legislative deliberations and to permit a clearing of a legislative path for action on Gov. Nelson's budget and taxation program.

Politics, Too
"But there were political considerations involved, also. Some of the Democrats knew that approval of several of the pending measures would be impracticable financially because of the budget deficit, while straight rejection would be painful politically to most of them as prospective candidates for re-election.

Some of the maneuvering had a familiar appearance. In recent sessions the Democrats as the minority baited the Republicans as the majority on the issue of replenishing the veterans' housing fund, as an example.

But the GOP spokesmen insisted that the motion to kill bills as a package violated rules and precedent. When they were overruled by Molinaro, the GOP strategists reckoned that they might have further campaign ammunition for next year in the form of a charge of undemocratic legislative procedure.

AHS Program Cited In National Magazine

The Appleton High School Student council has been cited by a national magazine for its orientation program for incoming sophomores and new students.

In the November, 1959, issue of "Student Life," a publication of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, is a reprint of an article from the Talisman, AHS newspaper.

The article, one of several appearing in the section of student council news, explains the assembly program held in September at which council members told new students about extra-curricular activities and requirements for clubs and organizations.

Council Kills Pay Boost for Mayor And City Attorney

Vote 7 to 2 in Favor of Denying Proposed $20-a-Month Increase

New London — The city council Tuesday night denied a salary increase of $20 per month for Mayor Gust O. Krueger and City Atty. Sigurd Krostue by a 7 to 2 vote.

Ald. Walter Fredericks led the opposition to the proposal of Mayor Krueger by explaining that the finance committee recommended that no salary increases be granted.

Mayor Krueger countered by pointing out that a number of salary increases were granted in the 1960 budget, therefore justifying an increase for himself and the city attorney.

Few Raises
Fredericks explained that a survey of neighboring cities

Fredericks

Indicates that there are very few raises being granted this year.

It was said that the board of education is allocating $240 in its budget for special services of the city attorney.

Mayor Krueger, however, claimed that unless the salary of the city attorney is raised, the city may find itself without the services of an attorney since none will want to work for the pay offered. He said that Weyauwega pays up to $3,500 for private attorneys to handle legal work.

Ald. Lansing McFaul told the council that he favored the proposed increases.

How They Voted
Fredericks explained that the request for an increase should have been presented Monday night when the public hearing was held on the 1960 city budget.

Ald. Richard Berglund and McFaul voted in favor of the raise and opposed were Gilbert Kroll, Leonard Rice, John Kott, Henry Marzink, Fredericks, Oscar Zuege and Vernon Burton. Ald. Harlan Schmidt was absent.

New Pastor to Be Installed At Two Churches

Sugar Bush — The new pastor of Grace and Emanuel Lutheran churches at Sugar Bush and Maple Creek, the Rev. Julius Manteufel of Powers, Mich., will be installed during services at both churches Sunday.

Pastor W. E. Pankow of New London will install him. The Grace congregation will have a reception at noon for the new pastor. It will be a potluck dinner.

The loose collection during the service will be given to the new pastor as a gift. Emanuel congregation will have a reception for the new pastor Nov. 29 at the Grace church basement. They will also have a potluck dinner at noon. They will have a free-will offering at the dinner to give as a gift.

3 Drivers Fined In Menasha Court

Menasha — Three drivers were fined in Police Justice Arthur J. Ales' court Tuesday after pleading guilty.

Nelson Skendore, 20, 94 Abbey avenue, paid $10 and costs for driving without an operator's permit and $5 and costs for disregarding a policeman's signal. He was arrested at Tayco and River streets by a policeman directing traffic.

Robert Mortell, 18, 233 W. Fourth street, was fined $10 and costs for speeding on Seventh street Monday night and $5 and costs for ignoring the stop sign at Seventh and De Pere streets. He was clocked at 45 m.p.h.

Jeremy T. Miller, paid $10 and costs on an inattentive driving charge filed as a result of an accident Nov. 9. His car and a dump truck collided on Ahnaip street as both were making a right turn.

Local Business Wins Rental of New Squad Car

Council Overrides Lower Bid Offered by Out-of-City Garage

Chilton — The city council stuck by its decision to rent a squad car from Hingiss Chevrolet sales of Chilton despite a lower bid from an out-of-town garage.

The squad will be rented for $98.50 a month. Mayor Hofmeister, objecting to action taken at the last meeting, obtained an $80 a month rental from an out-of-city garage.

The mayor bowed to the council's feelings summed up by Ald. Hedrich as the difference in the money was not being as important as patronizing a local business.

However, the council did postpone action on the purchase of a radar unit until after a competitive test can be made to compare with the unit now under test by the city.

The council moved to give further study to the police department's request to join the state employee group insurance. The city would pay 40 per cent of the premium under the plan.

A petition will be filed with the state public service commission for the erection of an electric warning device at the Breed street railroad crossing.

The purchase of an 8-foot V snow plow was purchased for $1,063. Regulators for the water level in the tower were purchased for $2,850.

A request by Leo Dohr to park a mobile home outside of a trailer camp was approved but opened a discussion on possible new restrictions on trailer homes.

The matter of parking meters for the city was referred to the Chamber of Commerce for study.

Wardens Crack Down

17 Hunters Nabbed at Deer Check Pay Total of $710

Clintonville — Seven teen hunters nabbed by conservation wardens at a Highway 45 deer check south of here Sunday were fined $710 in addition to paying court costs when their cases were heard by Justice Frank A. Sinkewicz.

It was one of the biggest crackdowns on game law violators here in recent months. Two men were fined $100 each for possession of untaxed venison. They were Michael Quaranta, Elmwood Park, Ill., and Peter S. Schneider, Milwaukee. Both deer were confiscated along with Quaranta's gun.

Fined $75
Fined $75 each for possession of parts of an untaxed deer were William Vanderbunt and Lyle Smith, both of Milwaukee. The venison was confiscated and both men will lose their hunting licenses for a year.

Richard Belinski, Milwaukee, was fined $50 for unlawfully possessing another person's deer tag and $25 for possessing an unregistered deer.

Fined $50 each for hunting with an improper license were Jerry Funk, Kenosha, and Byron Haskins, Milwaukee.

Others Nabbed
Francis Gue, New London, was fined $50 for possessing the tagged deer of another person. The deer was confiscated.

Fined $25 each for possessing unregistered deer were Robert Fellenz, Milwaukee, and John Karpen, route 3, Elkhorn, Wis.

Fined $25 for transporting Christmas trees without a license were Henry Davis, Waterford, paid $25 for transporting Christmas trees without a license.

Fined $10 each for transporting an uncased gun in a car were Roland Braun and Ronald Green, both of Milwaukee.

Herman Huff and Bruno Bernstein, both of Milwaukee, paid $10 each for transporting a loaded gun in an auto.

Jack Sharley, Fond du Lac, was fined $10 for possession of an unregistered deer as was Henry Gray, of Milwaukee.

Lack of Cost Information Stalls New London Beautification Plan

Woman's Study Club Asks Council to Install Baskets, Flowers on Light Posts

New London — The city council Tuesday night postponed action on a request by the beautification committee of the New London Woman's Study club to install baskets and artificial flowers on the light posts in the business district until the committee provides cost information.

Mrs. Francis Werner, chairman of the committee, explained a number of cities and towns are decorating their streets in some manner. Neenah-Menasha and Wauwatosa use fresh flowers.

In another action, the council heard the first reading of an amendment to the liquor license ordinance to establish the number of available licenses as were in effect as of Aug. 27, 1959.

Postpone Meter Plan
The council also postponed action on the proposed installation of 5-minute parking meters on S. Pearl street in front of the new post office. No meter will be installed in front of the Rieckmann property since it is being used as a public parking lot.

The board of public works was authorized to rent space for the storage of city equipment in order to provide additional space at the city garage for Waupaca county snow plows. The city will pay $5 per month rent until the addition to the city garage is completed.

Lloyd S. Qualley, superintendent of schools, discussed the new state insurance for city and school employees with the council.

He was authorized to send questionnaires to city and school employees to find out if they want the insurance. The employee will pay 60 per cent of the cost and the city government will pay the remaining 40 per cent.

Robert Patchen, president of the New London Teachers association, told the council many favored the insurance.

Rotary Club Sees School 1-Act Play
New London — The 1-act forensic play, "Moonshine," provided the entertainment for a meeting of the Rotary club Monday night at Elwood hotel.

The play recently won an A rating in the district high school forensic contest. The cast consists of Fritz Hunrath, Carl Fredericksen and Pete Sweedy, Washington High school students. Robert Patchen is faculty director.

Wendell Harris announced that the Rotary Christmas party will be during the week of Dec. 14.

Carroll Ritchie is the November program chairman.

Firemen Called for Farm Chimney Fire
Chilton — The fire department was called at 8:30 p.m. Monday to extinguish a chimney fire at the farm home of Herbert Popp, Jr., route 2, Chilton.

Assistant Fire Chief Alex Schoening said there was no fire damage and little smoke damage.

Rites Set at Home
Navarino — Bible study and prayer service of Bethesda Free church will be held Thursday night at the Otto Olson home.

Clothing for Needy Drive on Nov. 22 to 29
The eleventh Catholic national Thanksgiving clothing collection will be held Nov. 22 to 29, according to Bishop Stanislaus V. Bona, of the diocese of Green Bay. The collection is conducted by the National Catholic Welfare conference.

Two hundred parishes in northeastern Wisconsin will accept clothing. It is used in relief work in 40 countries. Aid recently has been extended to include Africa and South America in addition to Europe, Asia and the Far East.

Last year over 188,000 pounds of clothing were collected in the Green Bay diocese. Of this 78,000 pounds was collected in the Appleton area.

New London Tax Rates Up Slightly

Council Adopts $477,027 Budget Covering All Expenditures Except Costs of School Program

New London — A record budget calling for expenditures of $477,027 for city council spending and state and county taxes, but excluding school costs in 1960 was adopted Tuesday night by the city council.

A tax rate of $22.56 for $1,000 assessed valuation excluding school taxes, was set for the taxpayers living in the Waupaca county portion of New London and a rate of $18.27 was fixed for residents in the Third ward, which is in Outagamie county, based on the city's assessed value of $11,053,250.

The total budget, including school taxes, may necessitate a rate of $41.87 per $1,000 assessed valuation for residents in the four Waupaca county wards and $37.58 for Third ward residents if the budget adopted by the school board withstands the public hearing Nov. 30 and is adopted by the city aldermen and chairmen of the townships in the school district.

Total Tax Rate
This will represent a total tax rate increase of $1.47 per $1,000 for the Waupaca county portion of New London and $1.58 for the Outagamie county ward.

New London's share of the school tax levy may be $213,386 which would require a tax rate of $19.31. Total school board expenditures are planned at $559,378 of which $322,624 will be raised through taxation by New London residents and those living in the integrated school district outside of New London.

New London's share of the school district's tax burden is about two-thirds of the total tax levy, leaving $109,238 to be raised by the rural area attached to the New London school district.

Offsetting the city's expenditures of $477,027 are anticipated revenues of $241,860 of which $15,000 will come from an anticipated surplus fund from this year's city operations. The rates of $22.56 and $18.27 will raise the remaining $235,315 to support the 1960 budget for city council spending and state and county taxes.

Contingent Fund
The tax rates also will provide a contingent fund of $4,150 which will be the council's emergency fund, bringing the total amount to be raised by the levy to $239,465.

About $128,787 will be raised for city council spending and $91,663 will be raised for Waupaca county and state taxes and $14,865 will be raised for Outagamie county and state taxes.

While the planned expenditures of $477,027 for 1960 is a record high, it represents an increase of only $7,655 over the $469,372 needed to finance the city through 1959. Normally this would call for a tax rate increase of about only 80 cents per $1,000. However, New London's assessed valuation decreased $67,000 from the 1958 tax base of $11,123,125 assessed valuation.

Reason for Decrease
Reason for the decreased valuation was the discontinuance of the Knapstein Brewing company, the moving of

Guards Puppies

Dog Finally Moved - After Second 'Shot'

Neenah — "Subzero," as minute after being hit in the right side by one of the syringes containing nicotine to paralyze the nervous system temporarily.

She still hadn't yielded to sleep after 20 minutes, maintaining a steady barking and moving about, guarding her four small puppies.

The second shot made her drowsy. She remained in a half-sitting, half-lying position semi-conscious and still willing to battle anyone who tried to get near her. Finally the shot took its effect after more than a 15-minute delay.

But "Subzero" didn't drop in her tracks during the first third shot for fear it might injure the respiratory system.

"It must have been her mother instinct that helped her fight off the shots," Trainer thought as he added this was the first dog he had to "shoot."

He was flown here Tuesday from Madison in the Hewitt Machine company plane piloted by Harry Sherwood with Police Chief Irving Stimp making the arrangements for the flight and transfer of the canine family.

The dog had dug a hole to get underneath the porch which is completely enclosed from the outside. Part of the porch steps were removed to enable Trainer to poke his specially-made rifle into the area under the porch.

The second shot was fired by removing a basement window which was large enough for one normal sized person to squeeze through and through which the "sleeping" dog and the puppies were brought out.

Driver Unhurt as Car Strikes Switch Engine

A car driven by James D. Gunderson, 23, of 1414 N. Clark street, skidded about 25 feet into a North Western railroad switch engine at Appleton and Bates streets at 8 a. m. Tuesday. Gunderson was not injured.

Suffers Stroke

Mrs. Elizabeth Laabs suffered a stroke about 6 a. m. Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Tonn, 1004 E. Randall avenue, and was taken to Appleton Memorial hospital by Larry's ambulance.

Ambulance Delay Leaves Pair In Wreck for 30 Minutes

An ambulance delay early Tuesday left two injured persons in sub-zero weather in their wrecked car for about 30 minutes.

The delay was caused by several factors and resulted in a second call for another ambulance service. Called at 1:15 a. m. was Larry's ambulance, at about 1:25 a. m. was Larry's ambulance.

Harold Linzmeier, operator of Larry's, said he had received the accident call at 1:22 a. m. while at St. Elizabeth hospital with a heart attack case. He said he left immediately for the scene.

LaVerne Babbitts, 33, of 808 Bayview avenue, Neenah, and his wife, Lois, 31, were hurt when their car skidded 108 feet off County Trunk BB, broke off a utility pole and skidded 51 feet into the iron fence of St. Mary Catholic cemetery about 1:05 a. m. Confined at St. Elizabeth hospital, Babbitts has head cuts and bruises, his wife a compound break of the left ankle and possible broken ribs. Both were in shock.

County police radio operator Frank Krueger was called at 1:20 a. m. by Valerie Wiesler, 2126 W. Second street, from the Club Terrace, Highway 41 and BB, reporting the accident and that an ambulance, Larry's, had been called at 1:15 a. m.

County police on the scene about 1:25 a. m. asked about the ambulance. Unidentified residents near the crash scene called Larry's ambulance, which arrived about 1:30 a. m. Mrs. Babbitts was in the rear of the couple's 1959 station wagon and a door had to be pried to take her out, ambulance attendants said.

As Larry's ambulance left the scene, Larry's arrived at 1:38 a. m.

Seymour Five Opens Season Friday Night

Visits New London; Gulbrand Has 'Best Nucleus Ever'

A Seymour High school basketball squad which Coach Ray Gulbrand says "has the most desire and determination and the best nucleus of any team I've ever had" opens its season at New London Friday night.

Four lettermen are on the roster and three of them are 6-1 or taller. This group includes: 6-2 Dick Gosse, 5-10 Larry Mory and 6-1 Dick Shaw, all guards; and 6-2 Ronald John, forward. All are seniors.

Other top candidates include: Arnold Metoxen and Wayne Genske, both 6-2 seniors; Keith Krueger, 6-0 senior; and LeRoy Lathrop, 6-1 junior.

The Indians play four non-conference games, starting with Friday's, and a 14-game Northeastern Wisconsin conference schedule.

Nov. 20 at New London.
Nov. 24 Bonduel.
Dec. 1 at West DePere.
Dec. 4 Oconto.

Iola Quintet Wins, 65-30, Over Rosholt

Iola — Sprinting away to an 18-1 first quarter advantage, the Iola High school basketball Hilltoppers crushed Rosholt, 65-30, in a season opener here Tuesday night. Iola led 41-9 at the half.

Senior forward Ron Rosenthal whipped home 21 points and senior center Joe Lekan 20 in the rout. O. Aanrud had 12 of the Rosholt points and no teammate could contribute more than four.

Rosholt fouled 26 times but Iola could convert just 15 of 34 free throws. Iola, which didn't need it, got two points when a Rosholt player tossed the ball in the wrong bucket. The winners built their margin with a solid rebounding job and substituted freely.

Curtis Companies, Inc., equipment to Wausau, and the change of manufacturing at the Borden company.

The Borden company here formerly made condensed milk which was assessable. It now produces cheese which is not assessable in the hands of the manufacturers.

The city, however, had a considerable increase in the addition of new homes and business places, although the additions to the assessment rolls were not sufficient to cover the industrial losses.

The biggest share of the 1960 budget will be devoted to the street department which needs $112,015, excluding capital outlays of $15,000 for curb and gutter, $4,500 for sewers, $2,000 for sidewalks, $3,500 for a dump truck, $1,000 for weed cutting, $500 for storm sewers and a big share of the $3,000 for gas and oil.

All of the other city departmental budgets showed minor increases or decreases.

Four Boys Admit Shooting Rifle At Store Windows

Four boys, two 14, one 13 and one 12, have admitted to police taking pot shots at store windows, cars and people with one of the boys' air rifles in the 400 block of W. College avenue. The boys did some shooting from a window in an apartment, some on the street and some in Jones park.

The boys have admitted damaging display windows at Hopfensperger Brothers, Inc., 418-420 W. College avenue; Ben Franklin store, 414 College, and Gloudemans Company, Inc., 430 College, and a car window in an auto driven by Mrs. Harry Refike, 620 E. Calumet street. The damage was done last week.

Estimates given to police indicate the car window will cost $8.50 to replace, the Gloudemans' windows $360. Disposition of the boys' cases has not been determined.

for high PTA Monday night at the school.

The city council of parents and teachers propose to the Clintonville mayor and common council they appoint a broad base committee to study and survey the feasibility of constructing a public swimming pool in Clintonville, the resolution states.

The program Monday night of the senior high PTA consisted of discussions. Mrs. Robert Billings was the moderator and Mrs. Howard Canaday, the reporter, on the subject "Is Your Child Reading Up to His Level?" Roger Gibbons moderated the session on "School Records," and Mrs. Lewis Thomas was the reporter. "Aspects of the Honor Roll" was moderated by Louis Krueckenberg with Mrs. Walter Klaus as the reporter.

On Feb. 10 there will be a joint meeting of all PTA groups at the senior high school.

Homemakers to Make Candy

Fremont — The Wolf River Homemakers will make candy and cookies for the shut-ins of their area for Christmas gifts. Mrs. Arthur Miller, Mrs. Elmer Schuelke and Mrs. Erwin Borchardt will be in charge of packaging the items. Mrs. Donald Hoeft will be hostess to the club for its Christmas party Dec. 29.

Members expressed a desire to be taught the new methods of artificial respiration at their meeting at the home of Mrs. Lester Koepf. The leaders, Mrs. Herman Braun and Mrs. Chester Hofberger presented the lesson "know your worth."

Women to Sponsor Christmas Fair

Clintonville — A Christmas fair will be sponsored by the St. Martin Lutheran school auxiliary at the school beginning at 1:30 p.m. Dec. 5. A special meeting of the auxiliary was set for Nov. 30.

Dale Society Picks Officers

Dale — Mrs. Louis Huebner has been elected president of the Ladies Aid society of St. Paul Lutheran church. Other officers are Mrs. Alvin Huebner, vice president; Mrs. Orville Grossman, secretary, and Mrs. Carl Braatz, treasurer.

Mrs. William Radtke was named to the sunshine committee. Mrs. Russel Grunwaldt was named to the auditing committee.

Mrs. Robert Laabs, Mrs. Bennie Meyers, Mrs. Ernest Meyer and Mrs. Lizzie Neuman are planning a Christmas party for Dec. 3.

Auxiliary Plans Bake Sale to Aid Apple Creek School

Shiocton — There will be a bake sale from 2 to 6 p.m. at Gundersons Hardware store, Nov. 28.

The sale is sponsored by the Shiocton American Legion auxiliary. The proceeds will be donated to the school for trainable retarded children to be built at Apple Creek.

Carol Westphal

Carol Jean is engaged to John Beck, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Beck, Manawa. Janet Marie is engaged to Dale Hoffmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hoffmann, route 1, Bear Creek.

No definite wedding dates have been set by either couple.

4-H Club Receives Awards At Achievement Program

Clintonville — The Pleasant Hill 4-H club members had a club achievement night meeting Monday at the Dr. Harold Laatsch residence, 115 N. Twelfth street, because club members had been unable to attend the county achievement award meeting.

The club leaders are Mrs. Marlin Boyer, Mrs. Edmund Horky and Mrs. Laatsch. The two graduates from the club were Delores Hohenstein and Mrs. Roger (Karen Horky) Paul. Awards for county winners were presented to Kathi Boyer, home furnishings; Miss Boyer and Sandra Wied, dress revue, and Delores Hohenstein, clothing.

Honorable mentions were received by Cherie Link, first year records; Sandra Wied, clothing; Sandra Arndt, food preservation, and Penny Johnson, dress revue.

Miss Boyer was awarded a first place rating in the essay contest in the county.

For the ninth consecutive year, the club received four gold seals, one seal being given for each of the four phases of club work completed during the year.

Set Parent Night

Royalton — Parents night will be observed by the Hobart 4-H club at the Hobart school on Thursday evening.

You May Be GAMBLING Every Day—For $100,000

Jury awards for injuries caused by automobile accidents frequently run as high as $50,000 or $100,000—or even more. If you don't have sufficient insurance to cover a jury award, the amount comes out of your own pocket—from your savings, property, or future earnings.

Don't gamble with your future. It costs only a few dollars to get the extra coverage you need. Let an independent insurance agent review your insurance to make sure you have enough protection. You can tell an independent agent by the seal below.

CRUICK-INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE
St. Mary 64, Trinity 46.
St. John 2, Banta's No. 2 9 (Forfeit)
Central Paper 67, Gilbert's 28.

Menasha — St. Mary turned back Trinity Lutheran 64-48 to chalk up its second win in the Menasha Church - Industrial Basketball league Tuesday night at the Butte des Morts gym.

St. John remained unbeaten by claiming a forfeit verdict over Banta's No. 2. Central Paper bested Gilbert Paper 67-28 in the other encounter.

St. Mary led Trinity 12-9 at the quarter and 27-19 at half-time. It had a 47-35 advantage at the close of three segments. Roy Kramer scored 18 points, Dick Rohe had 13 and Ralph McClone made 12 for St. Mary. Rosen had 14 for Trinity.

Bob Erickson tallied 27 points to spark Central's triumph over Gilbert's. Perket came up with 17. Cliff Juneau made nine for Gilbert's. Central led 14-3 after a quarter, 25-9 at halftime and 44-20 at the close of three

Russia Has More Hockey Players Than Canada, Bobcat Head Says

Neenah — Although the Russians only have been playing hockey since about 1946, they already have more players than Canada, Don Clark, general manager of the Green Bay Bobcats hockey team, told the Neenah-Menasha Optimists at Tuesday's luncheon meeting at the Valley Inn.

Clark, who was general manager of the United States puck team which played two exhibitions in the Soviet several years ago, said that 55,000 to 60,000 will watch a game in an outdoor stadium on a day colder than today.

Hockey in Russia and the Scandinavian countries stemmed from bandy, a game played on ice with a stick and ball, the Bobcat official related. Because bandy stresses speed, the Russians are fast skaters and measure up to any in our professional league he added.

Russian hockey depends on precision and position and has very little body contact, he went on. He declared that the goalies don't have as many saves because of the numerous shots blocked by the defensive men, probably because of their strong legs since soccer is the national game.

Clark told that the Americans and Canadians are stronger in the nets, which probably can be attributed to basketball, baseball and other games played in the west which help develop the hands.

That the Russians stress physical fitness and sports also was brought out by the speaker, who declared that they will not enter outside competition unless they are sure they will do all right.

Beat Canada

He explained that they will play the satellite nations and if they do all right will enter outside competition. "They entered only five events in the winter Olympics yet had the most points," Clark reported, adding that when Russia first entered the world hockey tournament in 1953 it beat Canada 7-1 and up to that time many didn't realize it even had a hockey team.

The hockey team taken in by Clark lost by single goals in both exhibitions and it was the first United States Sports team to go to Russia. The Harlem Globetrotters and track and field teams have gone there since then.

As for his current concern, the Bobcats, Clark said the organization is elated over the support the team has received from the area and it is in a tougher league this year with Minneapolis, Des Moines, Rochester and Marquette.

Play Olympic Teams
He told that the Japanese and West German Olympic teams will play exhibitions in Green Bay on their way to the winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The speaker explained that the Japanese have been playing hockey about 28 to 30 years and first entered the Olympics in 1936. He said they are good skaters and colorful but aren't strong. Most of them come from northern Japan where it gets as cold as it does here. There are eight or 10 indoor rinks in the islands.

Clark reported that the current age of the Bobcats is 22.3 years and according to Canadian standards the team would be classified as a senior team and would be A or AA when compared to the calibre of our baseball leagues.

Republican Women Hear Rep. Van Pelt

Oshkosh — "We're in politics — let's play it that way," Rep. William K. VanPelt told 100 Winnebago county Republican women at a tea at the Oshkosh home of Mrs. Carl Steiger, Tuesday afternoon. VanPelt and his wife were guests at the tea, given by the county Federation of Republican Women. He was introduced by Mrs. Byron Ising, who also introduced the federation's new president, Mrs. Marion Behlendorf, Oshkosh.

Emphasizing that candidates on the county, state and national level were only as good as the organization behind them, VanPelt urged the group to "be realistic" as they go into the 1960 campaign.

Economics Club To Hear Talk by Mrs. Wilterding

Menasha — Mrs. John Wilterding will speak on "Historic Menasha" for the Economics club at 2 p.m. Friday at the Menasha library.

International Party

Oshkosh — Oshkosh Rotary club will entertain area international students at a 7:30 p.m. Friday party at Paine Art center.

1958 41 clubs had librarians and a total of 4121 books were read by homemakers.

In tracing the development of the reading program which began in 1936 with 23 clubs Miss Klusmeyer pointed to social, economic and technological changes which have affected reading.

Program arrangements were made by Mrs. Melba Anderson and Mrs. Lydia Winkelbauer of the county library.

Couple Will Observe 50th Anniversary

Neenah — Mr. and Mrs. Martin R. Wachholz, 138 Meade street, will observe their golden anniversary Saturday with a dinner at 5 p.m. at the YWCA.

A reception from 7 to 9 p.m. will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Wachholz were married Nov. 24, 1909 at Trinity Lutheran church, Neenah, with the Rev. A. Froehlich officiating.

Two of their four attendants will be present at the celebration. They are Mrs. John Mantoufel and Oscar Luebke, sister and brother of Mrs. Wachholz.

Mr. Wachholz was superintendent of streets in Neenah until his retirement in 1946.

Host and hostess for the observance will be Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Stitzel, Springfield, Ohio. Mrs. Stitzel, the former Doris Wachholz, is the couple's only daughter.

Population Up One-Quarter but Delinquency Soars 250 Per Cent

Menasha — Juvenile delinquency in 1949-57 rose about 250 per cent while the child population rose only 25 per cent, the Rev. John D. Allemang, Catholic chaplain of the School for Boys at Waukesha and Wales, told the Community council Tuesday.

The state school reflected the increase in juvenile delinquency in the period, he pointed out. In 1951, 341 boys were sent there by courts and other agencies. Last year's resident total was 703. Today, there are 330 at Waukesha and another 70 at the new school at Wales, near Waukesha.

Father Allemang cited a study made at Dallas, Tex., showing 6,618 juveniles in trouble last year, six of them for murder. Of them, 26 per cent were 12 and under.

"Usually Angry"

The delinquent, the priest said, "usually is angry with society; he has little ability to deal with his feelings; he places his guilt on others; he finds it difficult to fight his frustrations and he lacks proper feelings."

At the Waukesha school, the boys laughed during a movie on the conversion of St. Paul when the stoning of St. Stephen was shown.

"How did they get that way?" Father Allemang asked. "They live in a world of personal pleasure and gain. They are mixed up in their moral and social values. Look at Charles Van Doren, Bernard Goldfine and Sherman Adams. They see a double standard," he said.

Lack Staff

The biggest problem at the boys' schools is lack of a sufficient and competent staff, since the funds available must pay for new buildings as well as operation. "Thirty-five per cent of the boys go to Green Bay (reformatory) and Waupun (state prison), and the other 65 per cent seem to be helped by their stay at Waukesha."

The average stay at Waukesha is five to seven months, since the schools do not have the space to keep boys any longer.

Father Allemang saw three methods of preventing juvenile delinquency:

1. Preparation courses for couples before they are married;
2. The father should take and keep command of the family;
3. Work with and discipline children before they reach second grade.

"Take Hands from Eyes"

He quoted a recent statement by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, that juvenile delinquency is an American emergency riding a tide of lawlessness. "Before we get the detention home.

K-C Technical Group Marks Anniversary Association in 25th Year as Forum For Discussion

Neenah — Marking its 25th year this fall is the Kimberly-Clark Technical association, founded by a group of employees who were members of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and who wanted a self-development group.

The association was to be a discussion forum rather than lecture or social group and members brought their particular problems to the meetings for round table discussions.

Gradually membership requirements were relaxed to permit other Kimberly-Clark men interested in technical problems and the name was changed to the present Kimberly-Clark Technical association in the last two years.

Present Officers

Present officers are Howard A. Whitehead, president; Jack Jayne, vice president; and Richard Boehm, secretary-treasurer. William Dickens is program committee chairman, aided by Gregory Weiss of Kimberly, Lyle Landrum of main office and John Crockett of Neenah Paper division.

Previous presidents have been Frank Wheeler, Harold Heller, Walter H. Swanson, Louis Fleck, Fred Bentzen, Al Wilkinson, Richard Zaumeyer, Don Porter, Connie Riggles, Neenah — Twin City Personnel association members will hear a talk by Edwin H. Olson, an assistant professor of psychology at Lawrence college, when they meet at 6 p.m. Monday at the Valley Inn. His talk will be on "Testing and Its Limitations." A social hour at 5:30 p.m. will precede the dinner.

J. Limpert, F. H. Werling, Oscar Reinke, Kenneth Wink, Kenneth Craig, C. B. Allen, Abbott Byfield, A. P. Bellinghausen, Charles Broughton, Win Day, Arthur Plummer, James Dinius, Robert Greenwald, Dexter Wolfe and Richard Platt.

Glenn Strieby served as club secretary for seven years, from 1938 to 1945.

Neenah — Kimberly-Clark corporation has speeded up mail and light freight as well as passengers between its Neenah and Niagara operations by running a daily shuttle car.

The service was put into operation in the summer of 1958 with a 5-days a week 265-mile round trip that takes an average of 6 1/2 hours.

Stops are made along the way at hotels in the Twin Cities and Appleton as well as at company facilities. Often a stop is made in Green Bay. Only twice in the last year months has the shuttle car failed to make the trip and in both cases it was the result of severe snowstorms. On one trip the driver got as far as Crivitz before being forced to turn back.

First driver of the shuttle was John Stolla, main office mailing department, while two Niagara employees now handle the wheel, Edgar Aderman and George Larson. They alternate a week at a time.

16 Records Released by City Library

Menasha — Elisha D. Smith public library has released for circulation 16 new long-play phonograph albums. Four new imported records are "Callas Sings Verdi at La Scala," Ravel's "Daphnis and Chloe," excerpts from Wagner's music; and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsodies," played by Gyorgy Cziffra.

Four gifts from Miss Ruth Machie include "Castles in Spain" played by Michael Legrand and his orchestra; Beethoven's "Symphony No. 3 in E Flat, Eroica"; Tchaikovsky's "Swan Lake Ballet," and "Classic Gems" played by the International Concert orchestra.

For dinner listening the library offers "Light Classics in Hi-Fi" played by the Melachino orchestra and three albums of music by Mantovani and his orchestra. "An album of Ballet Melodies," "Operatic Arias" and "Music From the Films."

Other new albums include "Adventure in High Fidelity," by Robert Russell Bennett; "The World's Ten Greatest Popular Piano Concertos," an album containing Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture," Ravel's "Bolero" and the "Cole Porter Dance Book."

Final Career Conference Set At Neenah High

Neenah — The final session in the guidance careers conferences for Neenah High school seniors and their parents will feature the armed services at 7:30 tonight in the activities room of the school.

Robert Sturn and Marro Blohm will serve as student chairmen for the program. Officers and recruiting personnel from the coast guard, air force, navy, marines, army, navy, Wacs and Waves will be on hand to explain those services and to meet with interested students.

Other career conferences are held as part of the classroom program for some vocations. Harry Spoo, guidance director, stated.

Dividend, Refund

Menasha — A 10 per cent interest refund and 3 per cent dividend on shares held has been approved by the Menasha Employees' Credit Union. The credit union has about $75,500 in members' deposits and $42,500 in loans outstanding. Roy VerHoven, treasurer said today.

Co-chairmen of the committee will be Mrs. George Volkman and Mrs. Wilson Barr, assisted by Mrs. Max Kica, Mrs. E. W. Blohm, Mrs. Robert Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Baxter and Miss Margaret Stewart.

Armed Grandmother Guards Stores at Night

Newton, Kan. — Mrs. Irene Cullinan doesn't scare easily.

And in her business that's good.

The 64-year-old grandmother has been a merchant policeman for 25 years.

Clad in slacks with a visored cap over her gray hair, she keeps watch at night over 40 Newton business places, carrying a ring of keys, a flashlight and .32 Colt pistol.

She's never had to use the gun and hopes she never has to but, she says, "when I find one of my places open, I don't walk in empty-handed."

"If they think I'm afraid to use the weapon, they have another think coming. My father taught me how to use a club. An open house at the Carl Walter home preceded a dinner party and costume parade at the YWCA.

Costume prize winners were Richard Hand and Mrs. James Payne. Game prizes went to Carl Walter, Mrs. Warren Peltier, John Wrase, Mrs. Jack Rusche and Lewis Ake.

At the Elk Teen party Sunday, dance contest awards were won by Dan Nadolney and Christine Pack, Pam Wiese and Barbara Wirth, jitterbug; and Michael Rausch and LuAnn Briske and Steve Kern and Pat Heimerman, fox trot. Game winners were: Sue Kellett, Judy Juneau, Gwen Raiche and Charlene Alesch.

Neenah Girls Pledge Theta

Neenah — Psi chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of the University of Wisconsin has pledged Miss Marcia Catlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Catlin, 100 Grant street, and Miss Elizabeth Drew, 636 East Doty avenue, daughter of Mrs. Ben H. Drew.

Miss Catlin is a sophomore and Miss Drew is a junior at the university.

Plans Made for Yule Potluck

Neenah — Members of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters of St. Margaret Mary Catholic church will give their annual Christmas party Dec. 14. Following a potluck supper, gifts will be exchanged.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes the Mmes. Stanley Jakovec, Elmer Bobb, John Hermann, Jr., Francis Zeller, Lawrence Kitchin and Margaret Grimes.

Special prizes at the costume party held Monday evening went to the Mmes. Emma LeMay, Ernest Kruse, Alvin Zettle, John Hermann, Jr., William Herman and Francis Zeller.

Guadalupe Society Has Mexican Dinner

Arroz con pollo, rice with chicken, was the main course at the annual Mexican dinner held by the Guadalupe society Saturday night at the Ambrosia room of the Elm Tree bakery.

Mrs. Lynn Cooper, Jr., Neenah, is the president of the group which sponsors various functions throughout the year for the benefit of Mexican groups. The proceeds from Saturday's dinner will be used for the Rev. William Wasson's Little Brother's home in Cuernavaca, Mexico.

Chairmen of the dinner were Mrs. Miguel Wimer, Neenah, and Mrs. Norman Hall, Appleton.

Entertainment was provided by club members and students. Mrs. Rene Urquidi from La Paz, Bolivia, a club member and resident of Neenah, danced the "La Cuaca," a Bolivian dance popular in the eastern provinces.

Zi Hynng Sa, a Spanish student from Korea at Lawrence college, entertained the diners with national songs of various South American countries. Dancing the National Hat dance were Mrs. Alejandro Terrazas, Mexico City, and James Davis, Appleton. Mrs. Terrazas visited the Fox Cities in June as part of a group conducting an experiment in international living. She is now a resident of Chicago. Davis attended the University of Mexico in Mexico City.

Two Hundred Attended the annual Mexican dinner sponsored by the Guadalupe society Saturday evening at the Ambrosia room of the Elm Tree bakery. Eighteen Fox Cities women are members of the group which this year prepared arroz con pollo, rice with chicken, for guests. The proceeds will be used for a boy's home in Mexico. Other groups the society cares for are a girl's home in Mexico and state migrant workers. Seated at the table, from left, are Richard Beelen, Appleton, Mrs. Miguel Wimer, chairman, Neenah, Mrs. Lynda Roemer, Appleton, and Mrs. Beelen.

In Good Taste Woman Too Zealous in Her Duty

BY EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like your opinion on the following matter: When my husband's mother died, he sent a very beautiful floral piece to the funeral. Soon after the funeral, his sister who took care of acknowledging the flowers, sent my husband a thank-you note for the flowers he sent. I thought this very strange seeing as he is himself a member of the family, and in my opinion this acknowledgement made him seem an "outsider." The members of the family sent thank-you notes?

Answer: No, thank-you notes are not usually sent to members of the immediate family, but because your sister-in-law was over-punctilious in writing to everyone who sent flowers does not mean she considers her brother an "outsider."

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently at a dance a young man cut in who was a stranger. I didn't know whether I had to go on dancing or whether it would have been permissible for me to refuse.

Answer: At a very small informal private dance, given either by an individual host or hostess or by a fraternity or sorority, the friendly roof of your host is considered an introduction. But at any public, or large formal dance, a man may not cut in on a girl to whom he has not been introduced. She would therefore be right in refusing, if she is sure she has never met him—but she must be sure! Otherwise, to refuse to let any one who has been introduced to her cut in, is an unforgivable rudeness.

Include Husband

Dear Mrs. Post: The husband of a friend of mine is serving with the armed forces overseas. In sending a Christmas card to her house, do I address it to her alone or to Mr. and Mrs. even though he is thousands of miles away?

Answer: Address it to Mr. and Mrs. and your friend will probably tell her husband of your card when she writes to him.

Miss Wildenberg

E. Lopas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Grissman, Buchanan street, Little Chute.

Miss Wildenberg attended Kimberly High school and is employed at the Wisconsin Telephone company, Appleton. Her fiancé attended St. John Catholic High school and is working at Thilmany Pulp and Paper company, Kaukauna.

No wedding date has been set.

Panel of College Men Answers Teens' Queries

Queries from what wear on a movie date to whether boys like long, sleek, polished finger nails were answered by a panel of Lawrence college men at the Tri-Y meeting at the YMCA Tuesday afternoon.

The panel, composed of Seniors Karl Franke and Dan Schuyler and Junior Lee King, gave the students' views on questions and issues submitted beforehand by the girls.

"What type of parties and dances do boys prefer?" started the ball rolling as the girls listened attentively to the college men's advice. The panel agreed parties should be arranged ahead of time, no spur of the moment gatherings.

Shower Honors Miss Springer

A linen shower honoring Miss Marilyn Springer was held Monday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Springer, 724 N. Fair street. Hostesses were Mrs. William Springer and Miss Ginger Springer. About 25 guests attended the party.

Miss Springer will be married Jan. 2 to Thomas Smudde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smudde, route 3, Appleton.

Schumann Music To Highlight Series

A program of early English works, a Schumann song-cycle, and contemporary compositions will be presented by Canadian contralto Maureen Forrester at the Artist Series concert at 8:15 p. m. Friday in the Lawrence Memorial chapel. Tickets are available at Belling's pharmacy.

One of the most prominent selections of the evening is the Schumann "Frauenliebe," composed during the turning point of his life, just prior to his marriage. This was one of his first attempts at lyric composition following nearly a decade of writing for piano. The story is based on Adalbert von Chamisso's "Woman's Love and Life."

Miss Forrester's program is as follows:

Ducking First Trump Trick May Prove Wise

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

U. S. Sisters Team Champion

spades. What should South do?

South is sure to lose a trump trick no matter how he plays the suit. The only question is whether to lose the trick early or late.

Most bridge players would put off the evil moment by taking the first two trumps with the ace and king. Then they would try to run the diamonds. West would ruff the third diamond and take two more heart tricks. Down one.

Keep Control

You keep control of the hand if you give up the first trump trick. Let West win the second trick with the nine of spades.

West cannot take two heart tricks, for dummy still has a trump to ruff the third round of hearts. The defenders can take, altogether, two hearts and one trump. South can win any other return and draw trumps. Then he can safely run the diamonds to take the rest of the tricks.

Look for this position whenever you want to draw trumps and run a solid suit. If it is necessary to give up one trump trick in the process of drawing trumps, it may be wise to duck the first trump rather than give the trick up later. Dummy will still have a trump or two to keep the enemy's best suit at bay.

Daily Question

Dealer, at your right, bids one spade. You are next, holding: S — 5 3, H — K 4, D — K
Q J 8 5, C — A J 4 3. What do you say?

Answer: Bid two diamonds.
A simple overcall is your best course. A takeout double

'Bone Glue' Described to Kiwanis Club

Dr. F. S. Marshall Tells Northside Club Of New Substance

The use of "bone glue," a relatively new substance, in repair of fractures and other bone injuries was explained to the Northside Kiwanis club by Dr. F. S. Marshall Tuesday noon at the Hotel Appleton.

Dr. Marshall explained the substance is new and still in research stages. He pointed out people were fortunate in this area that hospitals are cooperating in the use of the "bone glue."

It is still at the point where a patient is told beforehand that it is something new and the case will be a part of the research work on the substance.

"Bone glue" comes in two bottles. When the two compounds are mixed, the substance hardens and is placed around the area of the fracture or bone injury.

Explains Stages Dr. Marshall showed X-rays from patients who have been treated with the substance. He explained in stages how the injury to the bone healed.

After hardening, the "bone glue" is porous, so porous, in fact, that it shows up as only a shadow on X-rays. Eventually, it is absorbed by the body and excreted through the liver and kidneys. So far there has been no complications on the liver or kidneys, he said.

The doctor explained a case involving a patient with polio and the treatment that followed. By use of X-rays, Dr. Marshall showed how a curvature of the leg eventually was corrected noticeably.

One of the major advantages of the "bone glue" is in cases where a cast cannot be used.

Marshall said "bone glue" is an important step in medicine and future use and findings may lead to benefits to all mankind.

Truck Weight Bill Offered in Badger Senate

Madison — (AP) — A bill designed to overcome objections to a truck weight bill vetoed by Gov. Gaylord Nelson was introduced Tuesday in the senate.

It was one of four proposals submitted by the committee on legislative procedure, the only committee empowered to offer new bills during the recesses session.

The measure vetoed by Nelson would have allowed a 5,000 pound increase in truck weights, placing the top at 73,000 pounds. A 1,000 pound tolerance also would have been allowed.

The revised measure, requested by the Wisconsin Motor Carriers association, would eliminate the 1,000 pound tolerance. Nelson in his veto message said the additional weight would bring the state law outside of federal regulations and lead to a loss of 18 million dollars in federal aid.

Another truck measure introduced would make slight reductions in fines on overweight violations.

At Home Gift for Little Girl

A little girl who loves pretty things so should have a pretty bedroom, and what could delight her more than making something special enough for a princess of her bed? Here's an idea for one of her nicest of all Christmas gifts, and a mother who sews can create it from the simplest kind of bed, the headboardless, mattress, and boxspring - on-legs or a frame variety.

A wooden cornice like those for windows makes a canopy for the bed. Perhaps dad can build it, and then mother can cover it with fabric to match a new spread. Or the canopy can be of the fabric backed with buckram and hang from a canopy rod. Straight lengths of more of the same fabric attached to the sides of the canopy and tied back like this completes the effect. The bedspread can be the simple one-piece top style, prettied with scallops and ball fringe which are repeated on the canopy, over a dust ruffle.

Mrs. A. M. "There's a radiator across the entire wall space between the two windows in our living room. Should the draperies be floor-or sill-length? Curtains on the windows now are maroon, but what do you think of light green to go with gray walls, deep green chairs, one gray chair, and a rug that is a maroon and gray floral?"

If the radiator isn't deep, you might use a single projecting rod for floor length draperies which would cover both windows, the wall between them and the radiator. The drapery fabric, of course, should be one which stands heat, such as fiberglass. The sketch you enclose indicates that individual treatment of the windows would be better.

Firemen Called When Dryer Motor Overheats

Kaukauna — Firemen were called at 5:50 p.m. Monday to the Willard Ebben residence, 1605 Oakridge avenue, when a motor on a clothes dryer overheated. No damage was reported.

Legion Can Not Get City Land

League Council Rules 2.41 Acres Must be Purchased by Unit

Kaukauna — The common council Tuesday night learned, through an opinion by Carl Sunby, League of Municipalities legal counsel, it would be illegal for the city to turn over 2.41 acres of land to the American Legion for park purposes without receiving adequate payment for the property.

The Legion had requested the land in an area dedicated to park purposes. Plans called for the organization to erect a clubhouse and maintain the surrounding area as a public park. In return the Legion was to deed to the city a building and property purchased from the city in 1928 for $1 with no charges for improvements made since moving into the structure.

Sunby ruled the improvements were made by the Legion and the city would not be required to reimburse the organization for such improvements as the original transfer of property for $1 was illegal. Prior to receiving the opinion, aldermen thought the city was obligated to pay for building improvements as carried out by the Legion when the city again wanted the property.

The land and building is situated just east of the high school and some day may be needed by the city for school purposes. The opinion was referred to the finance committee for study.

Honor 5 AHS Seniors for Test

Five seniors at Appleton High school have been cited for outstanding performance on the National Merit scholarship qualifying test last spring. Each has received a letter of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship corporation.

Seniors who were runners-up are Carl H. Malmstrom, Dennis P. Chuchel, Calvin R. Kluess, William Simon and John Frank.

They are among 27,000 students from all over the United States who were given recognition for high performance on the test. Although they did not reach the status of semi-finalists, they have been singled out of the 550,000 students who took the tests last spring.

Committee Rejects Hotel Proposition On Flag Pole Risk

The city council's street and sanitation committee has rejected a Conway hotel proposal covering claims and damages which may arise from two curb-side flag poles.

Hotel officials said they would buy insurance to hold the city free from any claims due to the negligence of the company. They already have city permission to install the two flagpoles at their new hotel, on the Washington street side.

Street committeemen said they want it understood the city will not pay for broken poles, or people or property damaged by broken poles,

Uphold Policy on Last Dates For Improvement Requests

The city council's street and sanitation committee has reaffirmed July 1 and Aug. 1 shut-off dates for requests for street improvements.

Some committeemen felt "the arbitrary dates are going to get us in trouble," but others said the city actually ought to be scheduling work the fall preceding the summer work season.

Committeemen were frank about why work isn't programmed in advance of the annual budget estimates. Aldermen must stand for election before the work season starts.

One committeeman said the special assessment policy stemming from snow plowing or removal work.

The hotel will be permitted to resubmit another proposal, committeemen ruled.

Seek Shut-Off Date For Sewer, Water Laterals Projects

A shut-off date for connecting sewer and water mains in streets with new houses is being recommended to the city council by its street and sanitation committee.

The date, to be effective the first of the year, is Nov. 1. It was sought originally by the water commission.

Henry Fulcer, distribution superintendent of the water commission, Monday told the street committee the commission wants the shut-off date for water service work because there is too much risk of freezing in uncovering water mains during winter weather.

Committeemen, after they agreed, said they would instruct Plumbing Inspector Reginald Gloudemans not to issue permits for sewer laterals after Nov. 1 each year, beginning next year.

5 Winners of This Contest Get Miniature Encyclopedia

BY CAPPY DICK

Three words are missing from the two proverbs in the adjoining picture. Can you supply them to complete the well known sayings?

To each boy or girl who sends in one of the 5 most neatly prepared correct solutions to this easy puzzle I will award a miniature encyclopedia.

This little book which is full of useful information is only two and a quarter inches wide and two and a half inches tall, but it contains 72 pages. It is a real novelty any boy or girl would be pleased to own and use.

Here is how to compete for one of these awards:

First clip out the puzzle picture and paste it on a sheet of paper or a postal card. While the paste is drying, figure out the word that is missing from the proverb the girl is holding and the two words missing from the one the boy is holding. Print the missing words in the blank spaces. Beneath the picture print your name, age and address.

Now color the picture with your paints or crayons or in any other way decorate your entry as neatly as you can.

Ancient Art of Swap and Dicker Practiced by Businessman Kane

BY CHARLES HOUSE
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Langes Corners — If you think the honorable art of the old-time horse trader has gone the way of mustache cups and high button shoes, you just haven't met Bernard Kane, president of the Denmark Farm Equipment company.

Kane, a soft-spoken but bustling businessman of this community, operates on the principle that there is value in everything. Extracting that value takes a rare sense of business judgment and a scanning wisdom on the value of almost everything.

Once a Suamico farmer with a yen for an old fashioned dicker sought to purchase a grain binder from the company. It evolved into a friendly discussion on what the binder was worth and what the farmer wanted to pay. Finally the deal was closed for a part of the sales price—

Came Out OK

"I came out okay on the deal," Kane said, smiling.

"Recently a lady came in and wanted to buy a television set," he said. "She had some cash but was $150 short of the price of the set she finally chose. But she offered to throw in a hand accordion worth something like $400. I figured if I could sell the accordion for $150, she'd have what she wanted and I'd have my regular price and a fair profit, and somebody else will get a good deal on an accordion. But I'm still looking for a buyer."

Both Kane and the company's secretary-treasurer, Jerry Van Groll, 42, have distinguished themselves as salesmen in this part of the United States. They have won trips to far-away places by overselling their quotas of farm machinery, television sets, radios and refrigerators.

The trips — to New York, Las Vegas, Bermuda, Nassau, Hawaii, California and Texas — are offered as incentives by manufacturers of the products for which the pair deals. Already the Denmark Farm Equipment company personnel has won a total of 12 such trips as a reward for salesmanship.

Odd Swaps

Kane has made some odd sumption. But as a rule, the problem is what to do with the items coming in as swaps.

"I'm a farm boy," Kane said, "and I guess by this time I ought to know the value of things that come off a farm. I wouldn't hesitate to make a swap for a pile of manure. If I couldn't sell it I could always use it on my own farm." Kane lives on his 80-acre farm six miles from Denmark near here and maintains two other farms in the area.

In his swaps, Kane doesn't accept such things as antiques because, he said, "I know absolutely nothing about them." But he has accepted horses on part payment for a tractor or a truck, or a couple of tons of cob corn as part payment on a binder or other farm machinery. On some occasions he has even swapped man-hours of work as part payment on machinery, appliance or radio.

One Deal Lost

Undoubtedly, such swapping takes rare wisdom which is not common today, and sometimes Kane misses an opportunity because of something he didn't know. On one occasion he had accepted a 1915 tractor as a part payment on a new one. He figured the tractor could be sold for junk, but the market went down so much that selling it would have brought him a loss of $35. He decided to keep the tractor and wait for the market to raise.

Shortly thereafter a man came in and asked the price. Kane offered it for $135 — a price which would keep him at least even on the double transaction. The visitor paid for it in cash, then said: "Now, this is a museum piece. I am going to sell it for $2,000." And he did.

Kane's earliest enterprises probably trained his judgment of values. Most of his life as a young man was spent in cattle buying.

"I had to figure it close," he admitted, "and I had to be able to estimate value, weight and to know the market."

Because he did know these things, he is able this day to look at a herd of 50 cattle and guess their total weight without erring any more than 15 or 20 pounds.

Fair Traders

Kane is a well-adjusted fellow with a warm personality and a really good and ready smile. Most of his customers are "repeats" and both Kane and Van Groll think this is the result of their penchant for making fair trades.

The ready smile is ample evidence to the reporter that horse swapping is a rare art which also is a lot of fun.

Some of the carrots were taken home for family use and some of them were given to employees, of which there are 10 at the Langes Corners shop.

Big Families

Kane has eight children; Van Groll has seven. Hence, edibles are not usually resold, but kept for home con-

Apple Crop Was Tops on Peninsula

8 Producers Harvest Through Badger State Apple Corporation
Located in Sturgeon Bay Office

BY RAY PAGEL

Post-Crescent News Service

Sturgeon Bay — It's worth a good 30 minutes of your time to manage 10 minutes' worth of conversation with R. V. Jacks.

Two telephones account for the interruptions. If it isn't one, it's the other with business involving the Badger State Apple Corporation.

Jacks is the organization's general sales manager. He sees to the distribution of an exceptionally high quality bumper Door county apple crop.

8 Producers

Eight producers handle all of their apples through the office in Sturgeon Bay run by Jacks and Mrs. Caroline Propsom. These eight members account for 70 to 75 per cent of the entire Door county production.

"We were fortunate with the weather," Jacks observed. "It produced a wonderfully textured, delightfully flavored apple, and unusually high color in the red varieties."

But, Jacks added, it wasn't all left up to nature.

Spraying Schedule

"The growers did their full share by following a strict spraying schedule to combat insects and disease."

Badger State was organized in 1937 and adopted "Bucky Badger" as its brand name. Its purpose is to produce, package and market apples. These firms are members: Door County Fruit Growers Cooperative, Reynolds Brothers, Horseshoe Bay Farms, Gordon Farms, Roen Orchards, Driftwood Farms, Martin Orchards and Eames Orchards.

Cheek Quality

Dr. Frank Gilbert, superintendent of the peninsula branch experiment station, and G. I. Mullendore, Door county agricultural agent, are called upon constantly by the growers to keep up with the results of research and experimentation.

A U. S. dept. of agriculture inspector is kept on the go during the harvest season. His services were retained by Badger State for its members, and he usually visits each orchard two or three times a day.

"Inspection isn't mandatory for the industry," Jacks said "but we are aiming for quality control. For that reason all of the shipments from our orchards are inspected."

Baskets Popular

Bushel baskets are still popular, Jacks observed, but other containers are rapidly winning favor with the buying public. A considerable share of the Badger State crop goes into half-bushel and third-bushel boxes.

"A housewife may hesitate to buy a bushel at a time," Jacks observed, "but she isn't so likely to shy away from a smaller, attractive, easily-handled package."

Also growing in popularity at super markets is the ten-four pack, consisting of 10 plastic bags with four pounds of apples each. The tray pack box in bushel size, where the apples are packed in layers according to size, is also going over well.

Fresh Pack Sales

"The members agree to sell all of their apples through the organization," Jacks explained.

About 60 per cent of the output is sold as fresh pack, but Badger State serves as an outlet for process apples, too. These are surplus and slightly below top quality apples used for such products as juice, cider, applesauce and pickled crabs.

Several growers have their own processing plants in Door county to handle a portion of the crop. The Fruit Growers Cooperative has such an operation. So has Reynolds Brothers.

There were so many apples, in fact, some of the branches couldn't take it. The breakage means extra work now with pruning saw and knife.

300 Pickers Used

Harvest operations require the labor of some 300 pickers and packers. They include about equal numbers of migrants and local people, along with a handful of Jamaicans employed in picking Hyslop Crabs.

By far the most popular variety is the McIntosh. Goodly numbers of trees are Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Wealthy and

"We sell a lot of our apples to the state, but we cover the Midwest generally," Jacks said. "The Dakotas are a good market, and this fall we've shipped some to Texas. Canada is also an important market."

Drainage One Big Problem For Farmers

Outagamie County Fields Stay Wet
After Heavy Rains

Surface drainage is one of the important conservation problems in Outagamie county today. Heavy fall rains have proved that many farmers are badly in need of a good surface drainage system, Don Powers, Outagamie county soil conservationist, said.

If water is not removed from the land within 24 hours serious damage to crops may result. Seed and fertilizer may be wasted to say nothing of the inconvenience caused the farmer working these wet areas. With good drainage fields dry out earlier in the spring and crops can be planted sooner. Crops grow and mature more uniformly over the field. Tillage, planting and harvesting operations can be timed on the basis of large field units, thereby encouraging good soil and crop management practices, Powers said.

The Soil Conservation Service offers a solution to this problem. One of two types of surface drainage may be used such as random ditching, a system where ditches are installed to drain depressional areas, or cross slope ditches, which are constructed across the slope and drained into a sod waterway.

In flatter areas land forming may be used in conjunction with surface drainage. Depressional areas can be filled and a series of drains may be installed to carry off excess water. In wet years a good system may be the difference between a good crop or a crop lost. A good outlet is very essential for a drainage system to operate efficiently.

Surface drainage systems may be seen on the Francis Weyers farm in Freedom, Ivan Storma farm in Seymour, Harold Ranson farm in Deer Creek, and Ralph Gehring in Bovina. These are but a few of the many who have received technical assistance from S.C.S.

Post-Crescent News Service Photos

These Red Beauties are a reminder of what was just a few short weeks ago when Door county apple producers were harvesting a fine bumper crop of apples. Harvesting of these apples, below, was done by the Badger State Apple corporation under strict control to keep the crop from bruising.

Sheriff Comments
While 4-H activities were carried on in Waupaca county, Outagamie county last week ended its annual observance of "Join a 4-H club week."

"We in law enforcement find we rarely have a delinquency problem with juveniles that are actively engaged in and participate in the programs offered by youth organizations such as 4-H," Robert F. Heinritz, Outagamie county sheriff, said.

"It offers the rural youth projects and programs that exercise their minds and bodies and helps build the foundations for healthier, more intelligent and more skillful adult citizens," he added.

Past Atomic Tests Do Not Justify Purification of Milk

Joint Research Effort With Atomic Energy Group Started

Washington — Levels of radioactive fallout from past nuclear tests do not justify action to decontaminate milk supplies, the agriculture department said. However, the department said it will start a joint research effort with the Atomic Energy Commission and the Public Health Service to develop dairy plant methods of removing strontium 90 from milk.

Lab Studies Laboratory tests, the department said, indicate possibly more than 95 per cent of the strontium 90 that gets into milk can be removed. The proposal to develop practical dairy plant methods of removing strontium 90 from milk grew out of laboratory studies sponsored by the AEC at the University of Tennessee as well as by Canadian and British scientists.

No Hazard Meanwhile, Sam R. Hoover of the agricultural research service said that on the basis of present knowledge the current level of radioactive fallout from the past testing of nuclear weapons does not constitute a hazard to the milk supply.

If large scale testing of nuclear weapons was resumed by any nation there would be an increase of fallout, he said.

All Contaminated Secondly, he said, there always exists the remote possibility of contamination of pasture land resulting from an accident in a nuclear testing or power installation.

Thirdly, if atomic war were ever to come to the world, he said, areas both near and far from the point of the explosion would be subjected to fallout at a time when all the remaining food resources of the nation would undoubtedly be important.

Bumper Crops Fill Barns With Feed

Hay, Corn Yields Reported Records For Wisconsin

Wisconsin barns are stuffed with a record hay crop harvested this year. And the Wisconsin Crop Reporting service says cribs will bulge from the biggest corn crop ever harvested in the state if farmers can pick and store the corn in good condition. Production estimates for Wisconsin's corn crop have been raised steadily since the beginning of July as yield prospects have improved. While the acreage of corn for harvest this year is only 4 per cent above a year ago, production may be up 29 per cent above last year's harvest. The yield per acre is now estimated at 65 bushels, and a crop of 181 1/2 million bushels is expected for Wisconsin or 40 million bushels more than harvested in 1958.

With the unusually high yields reported for alfalfa, tame hay production this year is estimated at 9 1/2 million tons—a crop 19 per cent larger than last year. There have been frequent reports of third cuttings of alfalfa, and some farmers have harvested the fourth crop. Some concern is shown by farmers over the unusually heavy growth of tame hay that will remain on the fields during the winter.

Pasture conditions over most of the state have been much better than reported in the summer and fall of 1958. Oct. 1 conditions averaged 92 per cent compared with 73 per cent a year ago and the average for the date of 75 per cent. Along with good pasture conditions, dairymen report feeding less grain and concentrates per cow than a year ago.

Order Trees Early to Insure Delivery

Waupaca — Tree growers planning to plant conservation department trees this year should make application as soon as possible to insure delivery of the ordered species.

Present limitations for orders are 10,000 1-year seedlings, 50,000 2-year seedlings, 25,000 3-year seedlings and 2,000 transplants. The figures are totals covering a single species or assortment.

After Dec. 1, 1959, additional stock can be applied for if it is available.

Blanks have been sent to all of last year's planters. They must be returned in Waupaca county to Dale Tubbs, forester, Waupaca courthouse. In past years they were sent directly to nurseries.

Soil Service Adds New Staff Member

A new Soil Conservation Service aid has been added to the Outagamie County SCS staff.

Bob Lieske, Ripon, a farmer and soil cooperater in that area since 1946, will work with Don Powers of the local office.

Ends Vacation Trip

Leeman — Mrs. Tom Stilen, route 2, New London, has returned from a vacation trip in the western national parks.

Dale Polls Open For School Vote

Dale—Polls will be open at the town hall from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday for the special school referendum. Only members of the New London school district are eligible to vote.

The referendum deals with the consolidation of the Northport district with the New London district.

NEW OLIVER
140 Bushel PTO No. 470
Sized Right for Big Spreading Jobs

This is the practical size—all the capacity you need for large dairy and feeder herds, to save time in the daily job of spreading.
There's new ruggedness in the big No. 470—deeper, wider, stronger floorboards... heavier side stakes... extra huskiness all the way through to take the pounding of power loading, to handle tough, oversized, matted chunks.
There's new power take-off flexibility in the No. 470, too. A new, in-line power drive adjusts automatically to the twists of heavy loads in rough fields. And you can heap up the low Oliver. There's no overhead cylinder arch to interfere with loading or unloading.
Rear wheels are located to balance the load, aid traction in slippery barnyards. Self-locking hitch stand avoids lifting. Check the new Oliver No. 470 before you buy any PTO spreader.

6 Principal Areas Cited Where State Must Plan Zoning
Modern Rural Development Must Be Realistic, Practical for Future.
A University of Wisconsin land use specialist at a community zoning conference outlined six principal areas where Wisconsin needs to concentrate its future efforts in rural zoning and rural development.
Walter A. Rowlands summarized that plans for land use must be realistic and practical, yet they must be made with vision and knowledge if we are not to barter future health and welfare for an easy solution to present conflicts.
First, Rowlands said, we need to modernize existing zoning ordinances. For example, he said, the development of new highways in coming years will have a tremendous impact on local zoning and planning, on land rural and urban values, on business, commerce, residential development and school districts. We must constantly seek to improve existing zoning ordinances in Wisconsin and to promote more local discussion in the planning process, he said.
More Cooperation
Second, we need to promote more cooperation between rural and urban communities in zoning. There's an example of good cooperation, Rowlands said, in Oneida county. The county zoning committee and the towns adjacent to the city of Rhineland are planning the width of the streets in the towns, the setback lines and the width of the lots so that when the city ultimately takes over that area of the town, it will not take over a rural slum.
Third, Rowlands said, we need to work toward a basic land policy for Wisconsin. This would include a listing of basic land needs for agriculture, forestry, recreation, wildlife development and residential and subdivision areas. There is, he said, a growing feeling all over America that there is too much waste in land use.
Fourth, he said, we need to look carefully and critically at the flood plains of our rivers. This spring there was both human and financial losses due to floods in Wisconsin. Rowlands maintained that the flood plain is as much a part of the river as the main channel. He said it is better to keep people out of the path of floods than to try to keep the floods out of the path of the people. Movements are now under way in Wisconsin to include flood plain zoning in all county zoning ordinances where this problem exists.
Wetland Development
Fifth, we need a positive program for the development of wetlands, swamps and sloughs in Wisconsin for fish, game and wildlife. We believe, he said, that in the future the swamps and sloughs can become a very real asset to the recreation industry if their use can be set aside for development of wildlife. A great deal of cooperation between government agencies will be needed in this area, he said.
Recreation as a use of land is of constantly increasing importance in Wisconsin. We need to enlarge recreation use districts. We need to provide special districts for summer homes to preserve quiet, to provide a separate use district for clubs and camps, to provide separate areas for commercial businesses such as stores and filling stations and to establish special districts on lake and river frontages for boat services, he said.
Wisconsin, he said, has an abundance of forest, water, wildlife, and scenery on which a permanent and profitable recreation development can be established, if we plan it wisely.

Youth Wins State Award
Gene Kaddatz to Make Trip for Chicago Meeting
Gene Kaddatz, route 1, Appleton, will be among four state 4-H members to receive an award trip to the 1959 national 4-H club congress in Chicago Nov. 29 to Dec. 3, based on livestock projects.
Kaddatz was chosen as outstanding among more than 20,000 members who carried livestock projects in Wisconsin.
The 16-year-old youth completed eight swine projects in six years. He exhibited a grand champion pig two years in a row. His outstanding record book netted him a registered Holstein calf recently. As a junior leader in safety this year, he helped carry out an extension safety program in his club.
Sugar Beet Prices Quoted
Fair Return for Crop Harvest Based On Contract Figure
The department of agriculture has made its determination of fair and reasonable prices for the 1959 crop of Sugar Beets, according to the Outagamie County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office.
The determination requires processor-producers to pay prices for sugar beets not less than those provided for in their 1958-crop purchase contracts with growers.
Department officials said the 1959 contracts provided for about the same sharing of returns between growers and processors as the contracts for the 1958 crop. Average returns to growers for the 1958 sugar beets was approximately $11.50 per ton. In addition, growers will receive sugar beet payments of about $2.40 per ton.

Low-Land Fields Most Open To Danger of Strontium 90
If radioactive fall-out ever becomes a serious factor in agriculture, the most strontium-90 contamination can be expected in lowland fields where soil is deposited by water running off upland fields.
U. S. Department of Agriculture soils research men, working in cooperation with the University of Wisconsin at the LaCrosse experiment station made this finding. They measured strontium-90 in erosion control plots near LaCrosse last year.
Soil that was suspended in the run-off water from the plots contained ten times as much strontium-90 as soil in the plow layer of the plots.
That means this dangerous element would be more concentrated in areas where the soil in run-off is deposited—generally a low area at the base of slopes.
Bomb Product
Strontium-90 is a product of atomic bomb testing. Humans may accumulate the material by eating crops grown on contaminated soil or by consuming products from animals which feed on plants from such soil. It can be deposited in human bones in place of calcium, and can cause leukemia and bone cancers.
By most standards, the fall-out detected in these tests was not serious. However, scientists are interested in the behavior of this element because of the possible danger from high levels in the future. Also, more information on the behavior of the radioactive element is needed before its hazards can be fully known or defensive measures planned.

Cheese Only Dairy Surplus
Washington — The only surplus dairy product now held by the government is cheese — a total of 13,648,000 pounds.
A year ago holdings included 53 million pounds of butter, seven million pounds of cheese and 82 million pounds of non-fat dry milk.
Movement of surpluses into school lunch, domestic and foreign relief and commercial channels has exceeded purchases under a dairy price support program. Hence the depletion of stocks of butter and dry milk. Too, consumption of milk has been increasing, leaving less for manufacture into dairy products.

New Musical Disregards Usual Cliches

Mary Martin, Others Splendid in Premiere Of 'Sound of Music'

BY WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Writer

New York—(AP)—Broadway's big new entry, "The Sound of Music," rings with entertainment daring and melodic splendor.

Involved in the show, which premiered at the Lunt-Fontanne theater, is a stellar array of creative talent that includes Mary Martin as star; Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II as the composing team; and Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse as the writers.

What they have created for the public, which bought $24 million worth of tickets in advance, is a musical play that blithely disregards the format cliches of most commercial show ventures.

Top Musical Score
There is neither orchestral overture nor significant dance routine. There is a plot line that weaves convent cloisters with Hitlerian Anschluss; there is a religious procession sung in Latin. Among the performers is Theodore Bikel, well known folk-singer, who is called on primarily to act, not sing.

It all adds up to a stimulating experience that derives its greatest measure of entertainment values from a score that ranks well up in the Rodgers-Hammerstein record.

Among the numbers that will take their place in the popular idiom are "My Favorite Things," "Climb Every Mountain," "Do Re Mi," and the title song.

Based on Trapp Family
Miss Martin, radiant and joyous, is in top vocal form as the girl who leaves an Austrian abbey to become the governess of a motherless brood of seven youngsters, and stays in their Tyrol castle to become the wife of the widowed clan sire.

The story of "The Sound of Music" is based upon the true-life adventures of the Trapp family of singers. Most of the play concerns the naval love story of the stern gendarme captain and the would-be nun who wore curlers beneath her wimple.

The score, like the story, centers upon Miss Martin, but there are other voices on stage who contribute to the melodic spectacle.

Patricia Neway, best known as an operatic singer on television, soars with a contralto of thrilling fervency, and there are two choral groups of excellent accomplishment. They are the Trapp children, in real life youngsters ranging from 16 to 8 years of age, and the distaff ensemble of convent sisters.

Also on stage is Marlowe, who gives a stilted, cautious portrayal.

The production is directed

Cowpoke Uprising

Actors' Mutiny Afoot On Warner's TV Range

AP Movie writer
BY BOB THOMAS

Hollywood—(AP)—The whole town's talking about the Burbank mutiny.

Never have so many actors been so unhappy as in the Warner Brothers TV productions. Here is the scorecard on the series stars:

Wayde Preston (Colt .45) has walked off the lot and gone into the airplane business.

There's an uprising amongst riders of the TV range, Warner Brothers pasture. The actors say they're overworked and underpaid and they're giving the studio a bad time. The studio counters that it made them what they are today and they should be grateful.

Bob Thomas, Associated Press movie and TV writer, tells about this unusual situation. This is the first of his 2-part series.

ness, complaining that his contract was "as equitable as a lynching party."

James Garner (Maverick) and Clint Walker (Cheyenne) are bitter about their contracts. Says Garner: "I feel like a slab of meat hanging there: every once in a while they cut off a piece."

Peter Brown (Lawman) is trying to get a new contract. Will Hutchins (Sugarfoot) says he feels like a "peon actor."

Jack Kelly (Maverick) is not mulling revolt but feels he is in an inspirational, almost reverential, mood by Vincent J. Donohue. Oliver Smith provides some lavish settings. The costumes are by Lucinda Ballard, for the company at large, and by Mainbocher for Miss Martin.

Shawano County Tries Emotional Testing Plan

UW Cooperates in School Program, First in State

Madison—Can a child who is destined to have psychological and emotional problems be discovered and receive therapy even before these maladjustments begin to manifest themselves?

That is the question which Shawano county, the University of Wisconsin school of education, and state department of public instruction are trying to solve.

They are cooperating in a study of 3,968 children between the ages of 5 and 19 in Shawano county. When the study is complete, Shawano county will be the only one in the state which will have tested all its children in intelligence, achievement, speech hearing, vision, and individual and emotional traits.

gences, achievement, speech hearing, vision, and individual and emotional traits.

Pioneer Project

The study is a pioneer project because the researchers, headed by UW Prof. Gwen F. Arnold, hope to discover a group technique for the early identification of emotional instability. If such a technique can be devised, the researchers believe they can crack a real barrier in education today.

"In my work in the psycho-educational field I have become aware of the increase of emotional problems in our youth," Prof. Arnold says. "If a test that could be administered on a group basis were devised, psychologists could spot emotional problems, and help reverse this trend."

Mrs. Arnold says the study of emotional problems in our youth.

If the Shawano county experiment proves successful, it will be a model for possible use in other counties in the state, according to George Watson, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

"We certainly look forward to the day," says UW Dean Lindsey J. Stiles of the school of education, "when every county in the state can sponsor such a comprehensive study of its children."

Five workshops, throughout Wisconsin in December, will acquaint soil conservation district supervisors with the possibilities and limitations of soil and water use under existing laws.

The supervisors will participate in discussions of town, county, state and federal laws relating to soil conservation district programs.

Cetus Howard, Eau Claire attorney, will discuss material prepared in cooperation with J. H. Beuscher, instructor of law at the University of Wisconsin.

The one-day workshops will get underway at 9:30 a.m. at Eau Claire, Dec. 7; Phillips, Dec. 8; Shawano, Dec. 9; Juneau, Dec. 10; and Richland Center, Dec. 11.

The workshops also will be attended by county agricultural agents, plus personnel from Soil Conservation Service, Wisconsin Conservation Department and the state Soil Conservation Committee.

is attempting to locate and assist three categories of children with mental health problems: the psychotic child; who must be treated out of the school system; the pre-psychotic child, who can be referred to psychiatric treatment and helped through the school system; and the "anxious" child, who can be aided by the school system and by improvement of his environment.

The children will be screened originally on the group basis, and then children who need individual diagnosis will be studied. Followup studies will attempt to determine whether the children who were screened out on the group studies correlate with the ones actually needing therapy in later years.

Bigger Demand For Part-Time Store Workers

Shortage Exists in Mechanical, Office Worker Fields

A greater than usual demand for part-time store workers is predicted during Outagamie county's coming retail Christmas season.

Fred Gehrke, manager of the Wisconsin State Employment Service office in Appleton, says stores have indicated they will need sales clerks, cashiers, wrappers, stock clerks, elevator operators and delivery help.

Elsewhere in the labor market, Gehrke says there remains a demand for office workers and some skilled mechanical workers which his office is unable to fill.

Extremely Stable
Gehrke describes the current county labor market as "extremely stable." The national steel strike, he says, appears to have had no effect in the county.

Seasonal layoffs in some industries is just around the corner, he admits, but manufacturers have indicated that not as many will be shelved.

Meanwhile, the big manufacturers, such as paper mills, have had practically no turnover, one of the largest of them hiring but one worker in the last month.

Pointing up the stability of the market are records of applicants and job openings at Gehrke's office.

The number of applicants in the active file this week was 825. This compares to 1,700 at the same time last year.

The number of job openings this week was 238. This compares to 261 in the same week a year ago.

Contract Signed By Grand Chute

Board Approves Hiring Firm for Regional Planning

The town of Grand Chute approved the Fox Valley Regional Plan Commission contract with Kenneth Schellie and Associates, Indiana planning firm, at a special meeting Tuesday night.

In approval of the contract, the town also agreed to pay its $4,387.50 share of the regional plans budget for 1960. Payment will be made in 11 installments of $398.86 each starting March 1, 1960.

Members of the Appleton Chamber of Commerce, county highway commission and town highway committee discussed extension of County Trunk Highway A from Wisconsin avenue to W. College avenue.

After lengthy discussion representatives and property owners referred planning of the road to the regional plan commission. When finished the road will go through a commercial and heavy manufacturing area.

Town Chairman Arthur Lecker warned the gathering the road should be five rods wide.

Family Released From Hospital After Collapse

Clintonville—Members of Clarence Kroll household found semi-conscious in their home Tuesday morning were to be released from Community hospital today.

Mr. and Mrs. Kroll, their 3-year-old son and Mrs. Kroll's sister, Mrs. Dave Boyer, collapsed in the living quarters adjacent to the tavern-restaurant Kroll operates.

Their physician refused to say what caused their collapse. They were under doctor's care Monday night for what appeared to be an attack of influenza.

Police Chief Len Manser said today all utilities had been checked and found safe at the home.

Children's Author At McKinley PTA

Ellis Whiting, author of "The Story of Life," a book that explains sex to children, will speak to the McKinley school PTA at 8 p.m. Thursday in the school gym.

Whiting is a former public school teacher whose 6-year-old daughter's questions encouraged him to write his book. He will lead a discussion after his talk.

Mrs. James Seekins is refreshment chairman and Mrs. Orville Hofer is hospitality chairman.

by Harry Golden

Don't Look

This is another of a series of articles from Harry Golden's latest bestseller, "For 2 Cents Plain."

I have tried to weigh myself at least twice during the past two years, but each time I just listened to the clicking of the weights and measures but did not look at the results. I think it's better that way. This system works at other times of crisis. Once I dropped my glasses on the tile floor of the bathroom, but I did not look. I merely felt around with my hand, slowly trying to find the glasses, with my head turned away. When I found them, I moved the fingers slowly around the rims first, then touched one lens and finally the second — with great relief. They were intact. If I had looked at once, they probably would have been shattered to smithereens.

I learned this many years ago, when I was more or less interested in precinct Tammany politics. My friend John Duff (later a famous criminal lawyer in New York) and I were watching the presidential election returns up at the Joe McCormick Tammany club, and the returns were beginning to come in on Al Smith and Herbert Hoover. Cheer after cheer went up as the announcer called out, "Eighth district, Smith, 231; Hoover 29; Eleventh district, first returns, Al Smith 99; Herbert Hoover, 4." And so it went for an hour or more, and finally John and I took the subway downtown to be on Times Square for the big celebration. As we piled out of the subway, The New York Times was in — for anyone or anything that a time.

Times was flashing the news that Herbert Hoover had been elected — by a landslide. This overwhelmed us, and John said, "Dammit, if we had stayed at Joe McCormick's club, Smith would have been elected."

East Side Belief

My system of not looking is reminiscent of the strong belief in prenatal influence of the weights among the women on the East Side during my childhood.

Yes, this was a serious problem with pregnant women. They were deathly afraid of accidentally staring at a woman who was giving birth to a midget because she has "mislooked herself" at a passing carnival, and a red spot on the face of a child was supposed to have resulted from the mother's clasping her hand to her face in fright — and at that very spot.

When the pregnant woman had to venture into the street, she would often take along a relative who had to be on the alert every step of the way. The relative would say, "Look away, there are a couple of dogs running this way." American movie audiences have laughed a million times at that old scene where the wife tells the husband she is pregnant and husband grabs a chair and insists she sit down. Well, this was no laughing matter in a Jewish home. It was both law and tradition that the pregnant woman be pampered. She was even guarded from bad news of any kind. It was always feared the slightest disturbance would result in a deformed or misshapen child.

Many pregnant women would hire a good-looking child of a neighbor (a boy of course), to run an errand ostensibly, but actually to get her fill of "looking." And, the fat kid with black curly hair on Times Square for the big Old World Jewish standards, that's where I came in — for anyone or anything that a time.

U W-Gopher Battle Looms As Crisis Tilt

Redskins are 'Strangers' To Packers Compared To 'Western' Rivals

Washington Tripped Green Bay, 37-21, Last Season, Beat Baltimore Two Games Ago

Post-Crescent News Service
Green Bay — There's something fascinating about the Packers playing a team in the opposite division.

Guess it's because nobody quite knows what to expect.

The Packers of the Western division battle the Washington Redskins of the Eastern division at City stadium Sunday afternoon. Compared to a western club the Packers play twice each year, the Redskins are strangers.

George Marshall's men did two things in the last 394 days that hit home in Green Bay. . . they (1) beat our Packers in Washington a year ago last month, 37 to 21, and (2) trimmed the World Champion Colts, 27-24, just two games ago.

What'll happen Sunday? Can the Packers score their fourth victory? Did you expect what really happened in the Packers' last few opposite-conference games? Look: In 1959: The Packers lost to the Giants in New York, 20-3. The Packers had blood in their eyes, and who would have guessed they'd go without a TD?

Hoped to Get Well

In 1958: The Bays had hoped to get well in Washington. This was the one game they had to win. Eddie LeBaron and Johnny "O" never gave us a chance. The Eagles came to Green Bay. This looked easy, Norm Van Brocklin notwithstanding. The Bays had a 38-7 lead and then barely won in the final seconds, 38-35.

In 1957: The Giants came to Green Bay—the Packers' big chance to get the then world champs. Goal line-it's a blocked punt set in. Then a trip to Pittsburgh. How

Steelers Get 2 Days Off After Big Upset

Pittsburgh — The Pittsburgh Steelers resumed practice today in preparation for the National league clash with the Cleveland Browns Sunday at Cleveland.

Steelers Coach "Buddy" Parker gave his players Monday and Tuesday off after they upset the New York Giants, 14-9, last Sunday.

KAC Cagers to Open Against Harlem Ambassadors Friday

Kaukauna — The Kaukauna Athletic club basketball team will open its exhibition season at 8:15 p.m. Friday in the high school gym against the Harlem Ambassadors.

A preliminary tilt between a fifth and sixth graders of the city will get under way at 7 p.m.

The Ambassadors, originating from Chicago, is a team stocked with former Globetrotter players as well as outstanding former college players. Feature player is Leon Hillard, club co-owner, who for 10 years was the outstanding dribbler with the Harlem Globetrotters.

Hillard took the place of Marquis Haynes, first of the exhibition dribblers. Another veteran of the Globetrotters is Donald "Ducky" Moore, a court clown.

Freedom Tips FVL Quint in Final 2 Minutes

Bowers, Krueger Pace 60-54 Win In Season Opener

Freedom—Freedom High's basketball Irish pocketed an exciting 60-54 victory over Appleton's Fox Valley Lutheran in a non-conference season opener.

The lead saw-sawed until Freedom broke a 54-all tie with about two minutes left in the game by popping in six straight points.

Takes Lead Again

The Foxes jumped away to a 16-11 first quarter lead but the Irish moved ahead, 35-32, at the half. Fox Lutheran went in front again, 47-43, at the three-quarters pole but a 17-7 point advantage in the final stanza gave the hosts the win.

Freedom won the game on the boards with 6-1 Vern Bowers and 6-2 Wayne Krueger doing an especially solid job and contributing 19 points apiece. Bowers departed on fouls with about six minutes left.

Freedom hit on 14 of 27 free throw tries to Fox Lutheran's 12 of 26.

Tormented Minnesota Is Primed

BY JIM KLOBUCHAR

Minneapolis — Football melodrama on a grand scale, matching a title contender against a tormented tailender with its coach in trouble, turns Saturday's Wisconsin - Minnesota game into one of the crisis battles of the year.

For 69 years, Minnesota and Wisconsin have been playing football in a generally cordial rivalry that is one of the nation's oldest. But rarely have them met in a situation that has the theatrics of this one.

No Targets As Lofly

Wisconsin can at least tie for the Big Ten championship by winning, perhaps get the Rose bowl trip. Its coach, Milt Bruhn, is a Gopher alumnus who just a day ago had to deny that Minnesota groups are trying to pry him away for the Gopher coaching job.

Minnesota has no targets as lofty as the ones Wisconsin is shooting for. But it wants — desperately, to hear the players tell it — to prove that it can beat a ranking football team after being kicked around in 24 years of nearly uninterrupted failure.

The Gopher coach, Murray Warmath, may be directing his last game at Minnesota. Under intermittent attack since 1957, he is now in a virtual state of siege. Downtown groups say they have enough cash pledged to buy the last two years of his contract. The university itself may do it.

Warmath possibly has made up his mind and the Wisconsin game may have no bearing on his decision. Despite the increasing tension around him, he was relaxed last Saturday to the point of joining a team pillow fight on the flight back from Purdue.

NFL Hassle Starts Over Browns' Cleats

Chicago — Walter Wolfner, managing director of the Chicago Cardinals, said Tuesday he had been told the Washington Redskins knew some of the Cleveland Browns wore metal-tipped cleats before Sunday's game between the two pro teams.

"Paul Brown (Cleveland coach) called me to ask about an interpretation of the rule," said Wolfner, who, as a club owner, automatically is a member of the National Football league rules committee.

"I told him the rule makes metal-tipped cleats illegal. Brown told me that the Redskins knew the night before the game that some of his players wore them and the matter should have been brought up then."

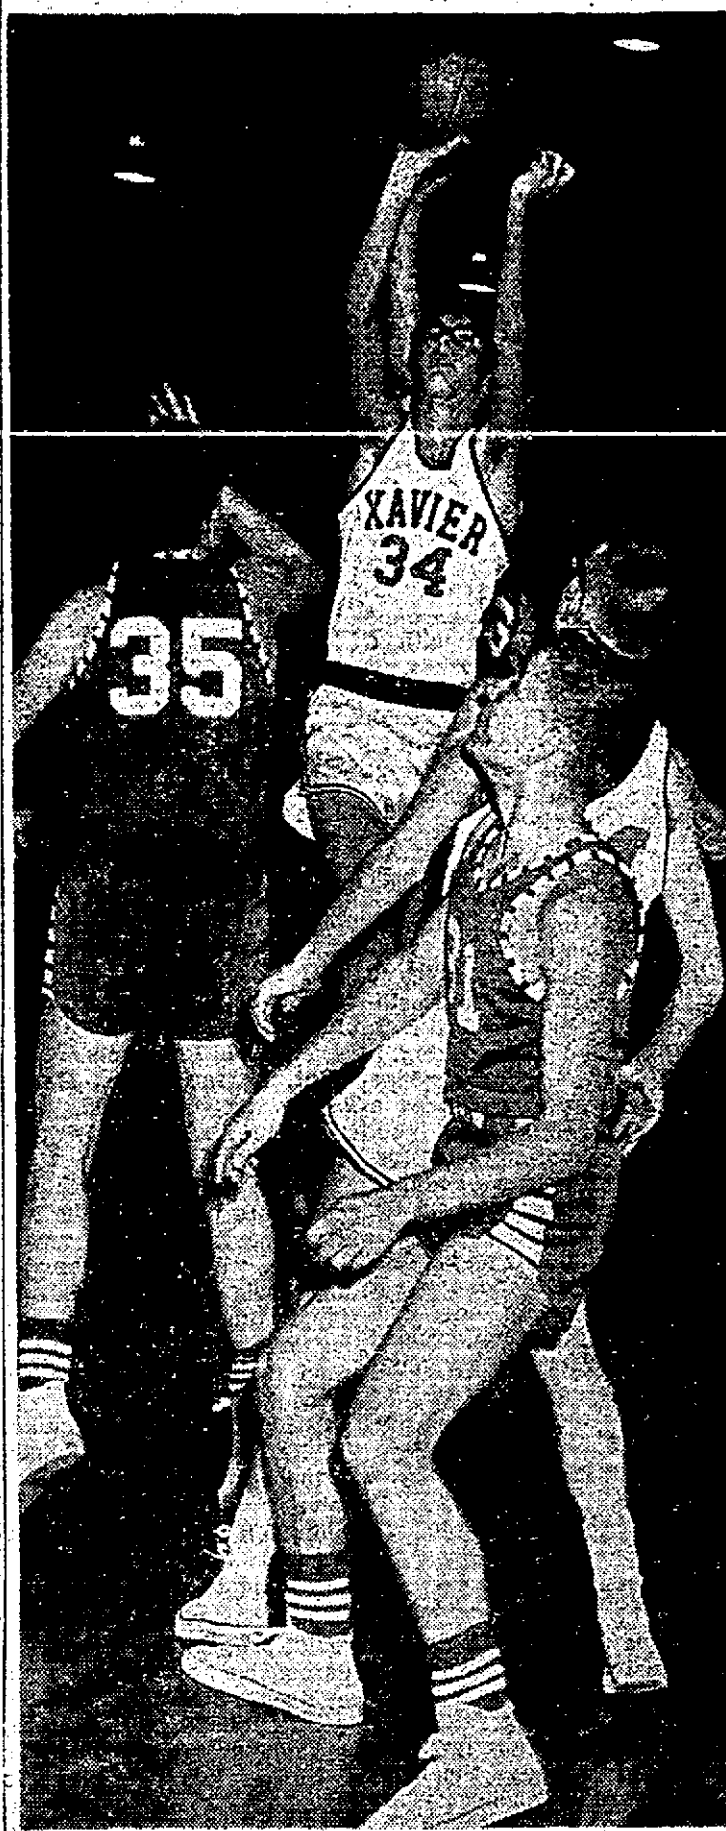

George Halas, owner-coach of the Chicago Bears, said: "Metal-tipped cleats are illegal, and that's all there is to it."

An Extra Hand Seems to be helping Xavier High school's "Chuck" Lueck get away a shot here Tuesday night against Random Lake. Lueck didn't need any help, however, as he scored 15 points in the Hawks' season-opening 69-30 romp. Xavier's No. 24 is Louie Captain. Identifiable defenders are Dick Hammer (35) and Stan Brissender (31). The game was the Hawks' first in their new gym.

Xavier High Quintet Routs Random Lake

Hawks Launch 1st Season With 69 to 30 Victory
Xavier High school's varsity basketball Hawks couldn't have been more impressive in christening their new gym and their first season Tuesday night. The freshmen - sophomore Hawks rolled over Random Lake, a 4-year school, by a 69-30 score before an estimated crowd of 900.

Four former Appleton St. Mary grade school stars under Xavier Head Coach Gene Clark were Xavier's top scorers Tuesday. Bespectacled forward "Chuck" Lueck took game honors with 15 points. Rugged forward Paul Zegers coined 11, while clever guards Pete Zanzig and Bill DeDecker—both reserves—tallied nine and eight, respectively. Nine players entered the winning column for the win.

Unitas Nears Sid Luckman's 1-Season TD-Pass Record

Lew Carpenter Leads NFL in Punt Returns

Philadelphia — Johnny Unitas, Baltimore's star quarterback, is close to breaking a National Football league record for the most touch-down passes in one season.

He's only third among leading passers, league statistics released today show, but he's thrown 22 for touchdowns, the latest three in the Colts' 28-24 victory over Green Bay Sunday.

That's only six short of the record set by Chicago's Sid Luckman in 1943. Unitas has four games to go.

Unitas also leads the league in total yards gained passing. He has 2,133 compared with the 1,622 of Norm Van Brocklin of Philadelphia.

Frank Ryan of Los Angeles, who hadn't attempted enough passes last week to qualify for passing honors, jumped into first place this week with 68 attempts (one more than needed to qualify), 36 completions, 596 yards gained and the all-important average gain of 8.76.

Ralph Guglielmi of Washington was second with 67 attempts, 30 completions, 562 yards and an 8.39 average. Unitas, with 251 attempts and 135 completions, has an 8.17 average.

Among ground gainers, Cleveland's Jim Brown leads with 199 attempts, 902 yards gained and a 4.5 average. J. D. Smith, San Francisco, continued in second place, with 154 attempts, 756 yards and a 4.9 average. Los Angeles' Ollie Matson held third place with 741 yards on 136 carries for a 5.4 average.

Ray Berry of Baltimore held first place in pass receiving with 48 catches for 679 yards gained. There was a 3-way tie for second place, Lennie Moore and Jim Mutscheller of Baltimore, and

Griggs Is Latest Braves' Scout To Rejoin Quinn

Philadelphia — The scout credited with signing Hank Aaron, Wes Covington and Johnny Logan, has left the Milwaukee Braves to join the Phillies. Quinn was general manager at Milwaukee until he left last year to assume a similar role in Philadelphia.

Griggs is the fourth former Milwaukee scout to join the Phillies in recent months. He will cover New York State and eastern Canada.

NOTES and NOTIONS

The current state of Big 10 football affairs underscores the desirability of a round-robin schedule—or, at least a quantitatively-equal schedule. Here is Michigan State, tied for the lead, unable to do a thing on its own behalf on the final weekend because four or five years ago—when schedules were drawn up—it was awarded only six games for '59. It's even more frustrating for Spartan followers because MSU might well have the conference's best team right now (its two latest wins over Purdue and Northwestern were mighty impressive).

On the other hand, Daugherty's Spartans to enjoy the fragrance in relaxing solitude. though, maybe we'd best save our tears and sympathy for three more days. If the topsy-turvy pattern continues, both Wisconsin and Northwestern could be thrown bodily out of the "rose" garden Saturday — leaving "Duffy" Daugherty's Spartans to enjoy the fragrance in relaxing solitude.

The majority of area fans still would love to root the Badgers into a chance to square UW's Rose bowl account. If the cardinal-and-white clad young men don't go West this year (with a senior-dominated squad), they're no better than long-shot bets to do it with a rebuilt 1960 team.

Saturday's TV thriller again showed that the '59 Badgers hit hard, are alert, play a lot of defense and have their moments on offense—but that they lack the explosiveness of the '52 team that played in the '53 Rose bowl. This team lacks, most of all, a breakaway threat like Harland Carl. Fellows like Carl, Alan Ameche, Jerry Witt and Jim Haluska made the '52 unit much more exciting to watch, offensively. The '52 Badgers hold the school's all-time total offensive record, with 3,497 net yards. There's been an offensive drop-off even compared to 1958. Last year, the UW averaged 314 yards and 22-3 points a game compared with the current standards of 250 yards and 18-3 points.

We are glad to note that Green Bay and Lincoln, the two big 1959 attendance disappointments in the Three-I league, are going to give it another try in '60. With the same complement of teams back, rivalries will mean more and the league should function more cohesively the second year. Of course, there's still a shadow over the Green Bay picture. The new controlling group-to-be, headed by Bob Conrad, apparently has more enthusiasm than the outgoing unit but also has fewer financial resources. However, the league must have had sufficient assurance that enough capital for a new start can be raised, or it wouldn't be going ahead so confidently on its 8-team plans for '60. Once the season starts, however, it's up to the Green Bay area fans. The new group won't be able to take losses indefinitely (the setback for the first two years has been variously estimated at between $10,000 and $15,000). We wish the new Bluejay effort success, because the Foxes' fortunes are linked closely to Green Bay's.

Cooper TKOs Joe Erskine In 12th Round

British Empire Champ Wants Bout With Johansson

BY JOHN FARROW

London — Henry Cooper, British and Empire heavyweight champion, today announced he has one fighter in mind for his next bout—World Champion Ingemar Johansson of Sweden.

Cooper's confidence stems from his successful defense of the British title against challenger Joe Erskine Tuesday night.

The fight ended after 2:55 of the twelfth round with Erskine sprawling across the ropes.

Erskine had been down for two counts of seven a few minutes earlier. Then Cooper waded in and knocked Erskine unconscious with a barrage of killer punches.

Referee Eugene Henderson stopped the fight. Though Erskine was out for a good 30 seconds Cooper's win went into the record books as a technical knock-out.

Rated Fifth

Cooper currently is rated fifth challenger for Johansson's world title. Erskine had been No. 7 on the list.

The sell-out crowd of 18,000 at London's Earl's Court stadium saw a fight packed with punching and good boxing.

In the first round Erskine stumbled to the canvas for a count of one. Just as he rose, Cooper threw a long left. Erskine went down for a count of three. The crowd roared for a foul punch.

But Erskine was on his feet when the punch landed and it counted as a fair one. Erskine got half up, then dropped to his knees for another count of one.

Bob Scheffing Denies He'll Manage A's

Kansas City — Columnist Bob Bushy of the Kansas City Star predicted Tuesday night that Bob Scheffing, manager of the Chicago Cubs last season, would manage the Kansas City Athletics next year.

Scheffing, now a coach for the Milwaukee Braves, denied it.

"Look for the announcement of a new manager of the Athletics this week and don't be surprised if it's Bob Scheffing. . . . Busby said."

The Athletics management couldn't be reached for comment. But Scheffing told the St. Louis Globe-Democrat by telephone from his home in Mesa, Ariz.: "I'm all set with Milwaukee. Before I took the job with the Braves I might have been interested but not now. I'd rather stay in the National League."

Kansas City has been without a manager since Harry Craft was fired at the end of the season, when the A's finished seventh.

Says Rookies To be Featured In New Loop

Hunts Asseris American League Studying Talent

Dallas, Texas — Lamar Hunt, founder of the American Football league, says the teams will be mostly rookies next fall. But, with appeals of pay, geography and a better chance to play, he hopes his club at least will field the top rookies.

Hunt told a news conference Tuesday the new league has three groups studying available talent and the information will be pooled. He acknowledged that most of the players drafted by the American Football league at its draft Nov. 23 will also be drafted by the National Football league.

Good Prospects

But, as far as his Dallas Texans are concerned, anyway, Hunt sees pretty good prospects.

"There are lots of Southwest conference players in the National Football league now," he said. "We think many of this year's crop would like to stay in this area, where they live and probably will live when their playing days are over."

"We will have to bid against the National Football league on the basis of pay, also. But we've got another strong point. Only a few rookies make the team each year in the National league."

He acknowledged that it would probably be several seasons before AFL clubs could play against NFL clubs on an even basis. Therefore, he said, no exhibition games or world-series type play-offs are planned now with NFL clubs, "but we hope to in the future."

Huskies Can Clinch Bowl Berth Saturday

But Washington State Victory Could Pose Big Headache for Selection Committee

BY HARRY JUPITER

San Francisco — If Washington's Huskies beat their traditional rivals, Washington State, this Saturday, the Huskies are a cinch for the Rose bowl.

But if the Cougars upset Washington — and Oregon knocks off Oregon State and UCLA topples unbeaten Southern California—the Rose bowl selection committee will have one of its biggest headaches ever in picking the 1960 Pacific coast representative.

The far west entry will be selected by a committee of nine athletic directors of the schools that made up the old Pacific Coast conference.

The West coast representative doesn't have to be the club with the most victories. The by-laws of the old PCC stress that it should be the most representative team.

Inside Track

Greg Englehard, California's athletic director, chairman of this year's selection committee said, "Washington seems to have the inside track right now but, frankly, anything could happen by Saturday night. We don't know who's going to play at Pasadena until all nine votes are in. The voting deadline is noon Monday."

Other voters are the athletic directors of Stanford, Southern Cal, UCLA, Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State and Idaho.

Unbeaten USC is ineligible because of an NCAA ban, for recruiting violations that won't be lifted until after New Year's day. Cal, last year's Rose bowl host, is ineligible to repeat this year.

Besides, the Bears have lost eight in a row. Idaho has lost nine straight.

PCC Scores Count

The 1959 scores that count, Englehard said, are strictly those of each of the former PCC members against other former PCC members.

In the games that count for bowl eligibility Washington has a 6-1 record; Oregon, credited with only one of its two victories over Washington State, is 4-1; UCLA is 2-1.

Since Washington has beaten both Oregon and UCLA, a win Saturday will virtually guarantee the Huskies a trip to Pasadena.

But, if Washington State knocks over the Huskies at Seattle and Oregon or UCLA or both win, why, folks, we've got troubles.

That would raise Oregon's winning percentages in the games that count most to a figure higher than Washington's and would hike UCLA to the same percentage as the Huskies.

UW-Gopher Game Looms As Crisis Tilt

there was a game he wanted more to win.

Added to these elements are the Gophers' eagerness to avoid the school's first solo finish in last place in the Big Ten and the intensity of a battle between husky neighbors who usually produce he-man football no matter what the stakes.

And the whole happy show will be viewed not only by some 55,000 fans here but kibitzers from coast to coast via television.

Minnesota has been working out secretly all week but makes no attempt to conceal that it is gearing its defenses to stop Dale Hackbart, who has been especially hard on Minnesota the last two years.

Despite a 4-2 record in the Big Ten against Minnesota's 1-5, the Badgers may encounter more trouble than the figures suggest. Minnesota cannot handle speed, but the Badgers have little of this. In a trench battle along the line, the Gophers usually hold up pretty well.

Billy Wilson of San Francisco, each has 33.

The top individual effort by a Green Bay Packer has been turned in by Lew Carpenter, the league's punt return leader with an average of 12.7 yards, based on 10 returns for 127 yards. His best run was 51 yards. Green Bay's Bill Butler is fifth with an 8.5 yard average on 10 carries.

Packer Johnny Symank is fifth in kickoff returns and Butler ninth. Symank has averaged 23.7 yards on 12 returns — second high in the league — and Butler 21.6 yards on 11 kickoff carries.

Paul Hornung is ninth among ground gainers with an average of 4.1 yards on 105 carries for 429 yards. His longest run was 63 yards, against the Baltimore Colts last Sunday.

Packer quarterback Lamar McLean ranks eighth among passers with an average gain of 7.4 yards. He's completed 124 of 219 attempts for a 56.6 average, third best in the loop.

18 Marquette Seniors Wind Up Careers

Six Starters Play Last Time Saturday Against Holy Cross

Milwaukee — Eighteen seniors will don Marquette football uniforms for the last time Saturday when the Warriors take on Holy Cross in the final game of the year here.

Six starters, including quarterback Pete Hall, are among the departing seniors. Five were on the first string at one time or another.

The outgoing starters in addition to Hall are fullback Frank Mestnik, Captain Joe Anderer, and Tim Zhulkie, slotback Si Woods and guard John Bouth.

Among the players who have been on the first squad off and on and will wind up their careers are guard Jesse Lee, halfback Frank Reginald, center Ron Dulak, guard Lou Casto and end Larry Hubbard. Others who finish are quarterback Ernie Carcia, halfback Jerry Cooke, center Tom Welsch, guards Pete Ahern and Tony Napolet, tackle Bill Bartholomew and end Fred Hawkins.

Halfback Jim Wabster and tackle Jerry Barton are expected to be in top shape for the final game. Both have been suffering with injured legs but were pronounced fit for action Tuesday.

Georgia QB Honored for Fine Passing

By The Associated Press

Francis Tarkenton, a 19-year-old junior quarterback at Georgia, today was named "Back of the Week" by The Associated Press for his performance against Auburn in the game that clinched the Southeastern conference title for the Bulldogs.

With 30 seconds to go, Georgia trailing 13-7, fourth down and 13 to go, Tarkenton, hit end Bill Herron in a corner of the end zone. Durward Pennington, a placement specialist, then kicked the extra point that meant victory, 14-13.

It was Tarkenton's pinpoint passing to fullback Don Soberdash that set up the score after guard Pat Dye had recovered an Auburn Herron.

MU's Hall 2nd in U. S. Total Offense

Pete Hardest-Working Collegian Since McHan Played at Arkansas

New York — Pete Marquette, quarterback Pete Hall is the nation's second ranking offensive player and third-rated passer, according to figures furnished today by the National Collegiate Athletic association.

DON'T SHOOT UNTIL SUNRISE. REGULATIONS CALL FOR DAYLIGHT.

Waterfowl HUNTING Tip

In the waterfowl hunt, be careful not to shoot until sunrise. The new regulations call for shooting in daylight, not in the dark. This is to avoid the waste of birds that used to be shot in darkness or semi-darkness and never found.

With a total of 1,401 yards on 297 plays in nine games, Hall rates behind only Stanford's Dick Norman in total offense. However, the Warrior signal caller leads in the nation in number of plays, almost 40 a game. That makes him the hardest working player since Lamar McHan—now calling signals for the National Football League Green Bay Packers—had a hand in 377 plays in 10 games with Arkansas in 1953.

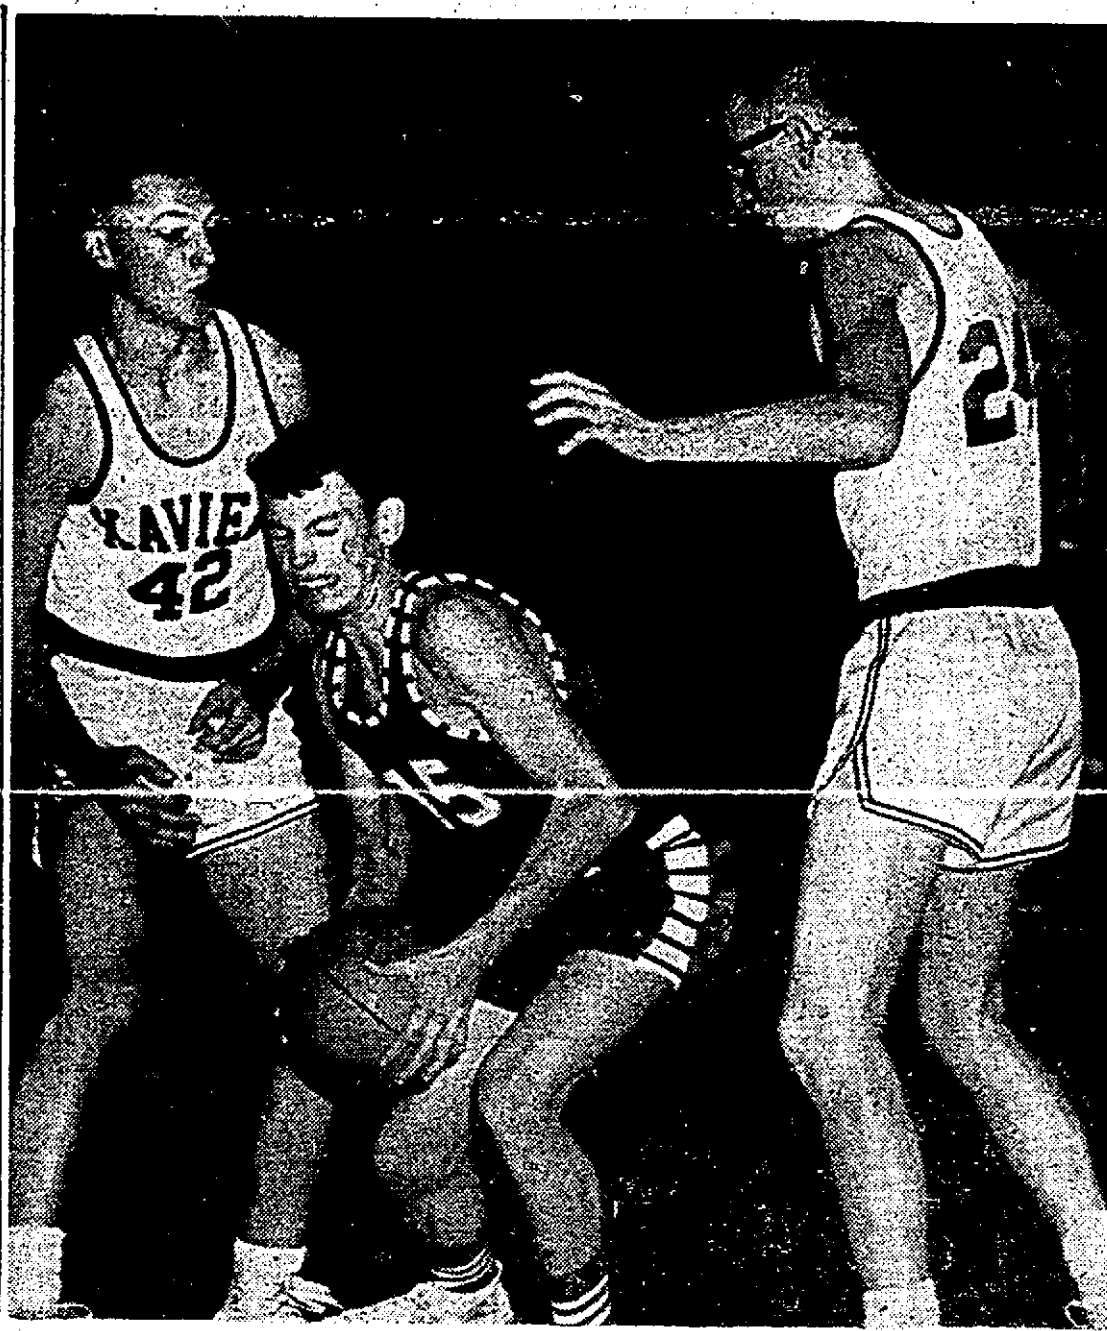

Hall has little chance of catching Dick Norman who has 251-yard edge—1,652 yards on 273 plays in nine games. Both Hall and Norman end their seasons Saturday.

In passing Hall has rolled up 1,446 yards on 102 completions in 211 tosses. Norman is first and Jack Lee of Cincinnati second with 118 and 166 completions, respectively.

Hackbart Is 1st UW Quarterback To Gain Over 1,000 Yards Rushing

Madison — Dale Hackbart is the first Wisconsin quarterback to gain more than 1,000 yards rushing.

Hackbart's 65 net yards in Saturday's 9-6 loss to Illinois pushed his career rushing total to 1,002 yards. The gains also solidified the Madison senior's position as the third best Badger performer in total offense, giving him 2,244 yards.

All by Rushing
Alan "The Horse" Ameche holds the all-time Wisconsin offense record of 3-212 yards, all gained by rushing. But he compiled it in four years, since freshmen were eligible at the time.

Jim Haluska, who passed for 3,093 yards in three seasons, is second in the all-time offense standings.
Surpassing Hackbart in rushing for a career, in addition to Ameche, are Ben Bendrick, 1,743 yards in four years; Danny Lewis, 1,460 yards in three years; and Pat Harder, 1,192 yards in two years.

Packers Leave Division for Game Sunday

could the Packers beat "Buddy" Parker who knew us from the Lion days? It was easy for Green Bay 27-10. The Packers had passes intercepted on the first and last plays of that game. Odd!

In 1956: This was Green Bay's big chance to beat the Browns, getting them in Milwaukee in an "off" year, as it were. And "Babe" was with the Browns. Green Bay never had a chance. Got rushed to death. Then came the Cards in Chicago. They were still in the running. The Packers had just knocked the Lions out. Wasn't in Cards to repeat KO. But it happened, 24-21.

And So It Went
And so it went with the opposite-division fellers. Fascinating business on hand for Sunday!

In the five seasons before 1959, the Packers split 10 last two weeks, which just games with teams from the opposite wheel, dividing each year. The loss to the Giants this year makes it 5-6.

This' looks like the Eastern division's year vs. the West. In six games thus far, Eastern clubs won four, lost one and tied one. The Colts lost two of them—to the Browns and Redskins, and the Rams and Packers lost to the Giants. The only western win was the 49ers' triumph over the Eagles. The Lions and Eagles tied.

Six opposite-loop games are left so the Western division can catch up.

The West has a 32 to 25 edge in victories in the 60 Eastern-Western games played in the five years before '59 not counting "title" playoffs. Three games ended in ties.

The Packers welcomed the "warm" weather today—around 30, but it's far from ideal for practice, even at this time of the year.

Coach Vince Lombardi conducted a half-hour warmup (and that's a poor word) during the near-zero wind and weather yesterday in the Stadium. Half the field was uncovered but the turf was solid.

The Bays have had only two good days of practice in the 1959, the Packers split 10 last two weeks, which just games with teams from the opposite wheel, dividing each

Clark frequently substituted in platoons as the Hawks romped to a 20-2 first quarter lead and were ahead at halftime 32-8. Xavier hit 13 or 25 free throws for 52 per cent while Random Lake made 18 of 35 (51.4 per cent).

The Rams, who were able to get very few good close field goal tries all evening, made just six baskets to Xavier's 28. Center Dick Hammes coined seven points to lead the losers.

4th Period Surge Fails By Brillion

Lions Drop Close, 60-58 Opener to Reedsville High

Brillion — A fourth period surge by the Brillion Lions fell two points short as Coach James Price's charges dropped their season's opener to Reedsville Tuesday, 60-58.

Lowell Reese led the rally by scoring 14 of his team's 19-point fourth period output. The Lions jumped off to a 4-point, 16-11, lead at the quarter and saw it dwindle to 28-26, at the half.

Following the intermission, Reedsville turned torrid scoring 22 points in the third period to grab a commanding, 48-39, margin going into the final stanza.

Two Foul Out With only minutes gone in the fourth period, two Brillion starters, Gotter and Krizesky, fouled out leaving it up to Reese and Kielgas to pull the game out, which they nearly succeeded in doing before time ran out.

Reese led all scorers with 27 points on nine field goals and nine gift shots. Kielgas added 16 to the Brillion cause. Zipperer's 17 paced the winners. He was followed by Behnke and Struck with 13 and 12, respectively.

As expected, in the first game, play on the part of both clubs was ragged. Bad passes and loose ball handling were apparent.

Gibraltar '5' Tops Tigers

Wrightstown Cuts Big Early Deficit In 52-44 Setback

Wrightstown — Wrightstown High's Tigers fell behind from the start and trailed all the way in losing, 52-44, before big and rugged Fish Creek Gibraltar here Tuesday night.

The Tiger cagers were down, 19-5, after one period but they chopped away and trailed by just five points, 49-second 44-43 basketball victory over Omro here Tuesday night.

Omro led, 43-40, with 15 seconds remaining, but Billington dumped in a field goal with 7 seconds left to bring the Indians within one point at 43-42.

Omro failed to freeze the ball and 'Wega's Dick Barker grabbed the ball and called time out. With four seconds left, Billington took the ball in at mid-court and sank a long shot to give Weyauwega its 1-point victory.

Omro had gotten off to an early lead. The score favored the Foxes, 20-14, at the half. After three periods, 'Wega had a 30-19 deficit. However, in the final stanza, the Indians outscored Omro, 25 to 13.

Montel Ziepke counted nine points and Gary Klug eight to back up Billington.

Wautoma Nips Winneconne '5'

Wins Season's Opener, 40-35, From Foul Line

Wautoma — Wautoma High school opened its basketball season here Tuesday night with a 40-35 victory over Winneconne.

Winneconne pulled away in the first half to a 17-14 lead, but the hosts came back strongly in the last two periods to overcome the Wolves. Bill Freund and Jim Kiesow, who each had seven points, played consistently to keep the Wolves in the game, but Wautoma's Charles Spielman led a balanced Wautoma attack.

The visitors scored on just seven out of 18 from the free throw line. Wautoma made 12 of 23 to provide the 5-point victory margin.

Bowler High Tops Bear Creek Quintet, 44-36, in Opener

Bear Creek — Trailing, 30-17, after three periods, Bear Creek High's hustling but small basketball Bruins closed to within two points in the final period but then lost to Bowler, 44-36, here Tuesday night.

In the non-conference season's opener, Bowler snared an 11-4 first quarter lead and never trailed although at one time in the final stanza it was Bowler, 37-35.

Don Sorenson paced balance

ed Bear Creek scoring with 10 tallies, Dennis Bechard hit nine. A third quarter in which they couldn't hit and were outscored, 10-2, was fatal for the hosts.

Steve Nault Scores 26 Points As Bonduel Tops Pulaski High

Bonduel—Steve Nault scored 26 points to enable Bonduel High school to open its basketball season with a 59-43 win over Pulaski here Tuesday night.

Nault, senior guard, who averaged 20.3 points per game last season, showed the way as Bonduel opened up a sizeable lead in the third quarter and stayed ahead the rest of the game.

Nault's point spree spelled the difference as Bonduel hit for 26 field goals to the visitors' 18. Both teams scored seven points on the free throw line.

points while Miller and Louis Hemauer hit 18 points. Stockbridge outpointed its host, 37-20, in the middle two segments with a 20-8 edge in the second quarter.

Stockbridge—With a sharp second quarter, Stockbridge High school pulled away to grab a 63-56 basketball win over Elkhart Lake Tuesday night. The game, on the loser's court, was the season's opener for both teams.

Louis Hemauer and Ralph Blatz pushed Stockbridge off to a 47-35 half-time lead. The Indians increased their lead in third period. Cliff Conrad and Lee Miller led Elkhart Lake's comeback attack in the final stanza.

Blatz led scoring with 19

Stevens Point Trips Waupaca High, 48-44

Last-Quarter Stall Fails Comet Quintet

Waupaca — Waupaca High school's basketball team couldn't break a stall put on by Stevens Point late in the game Tuesday night, and thus lost its opening game to the Pointers, 48-44, on the winners' floor. The lead went back and forth through most of the game. The tilt was tied, 32-32, at the end of three quarters. Stevens Point's Rick Reichardt dropped in nine points in the fourth quarter to help the hosts to victory. With 2:03 left in the game Point began to stall and Waupaca was forced to foul in attempting to get possession.

Steve Hansen paced the Waupaca attack with 19 points. Reichardt led Stevens Point with 16.

Drivers Fined For Charges In Accidents

Traffic Violations Lead to Crashes in City, Police Say

Two drivers were fined and a third forfeited bond on charges stemming from auto accidents when they were arraigned Tuesday in municipal court.

Sylvester H. Brouillard, 34, of 1748 N. Charlotte street, who previously denied the charge, forfeited $37.95 for inattentive driving. The conviction will cost him four points, the accident three more against his driving record. He was charged after his car traveled 30 feet on a boulevard in the 1000 block of N. Owaissa street Nov. 5 and hit a tree.

Julie V. Captain, 51, of 1601 N. Mason street, was fined $40 and charged six points for hitting a parked car Sunday in the 500 block of W. College avenue and leaving the scene.

Hit Pole
Royal H. Brandt, 32, of 915 N. Drew street, was fined $35 and charged four points for inattentive driving, and three points for an accident. Brandt was charged after his car traveled on the wrong side of the street in the 1900 block of N. Richmond street Nov. 19 and hit a pole, injuring two persons.

Three minors were given 60-day license revocations, but 30 days were stayed on the condition the youths attend Judge Oscar J. Schmieg's municipal court safety school at 7 p. m. Dec. 15 in the courtroom.

The minors are Thomas R. Green, 16, of 553 N. Division street, charged with driving 30 miles an hour in a 15-mile school zone; James Benotch, 17, of 301 Brothers street; Kaukauna, and Gerald E. Larson, 17, Combined Locks, both charged with illegal passing.

Charged three points each for ignoring stop signs were Eugene A. Buman, 20, route 1, Appleton, fined $10, and Florence M. Paulsen, route 2, Menasha, forfeited $13.95.

No License
Kenneth W. Lange, 26, of 517 De Pere street, Menasha, was fined $50 for driving after his driver's license was revoked and $15 for ignoring a stop sign. His license also was revoked for an additional year.

James A. Cettinger, 21, of 207 Doty street, Kaukauna, was fined $15 and charged three points for speeding.

Keith D. Reffke, 18, of 200 E. Calumet street, was fined $10 for illegal parking in Appleton.

Fined $10 each for failing to have registration for their vehicles were Eugene E. Deeg, 31, of 1953 Palisades drive, and Kenneth R. Masaros, 27, of 222 E. Elm street, Kimberly.

Illegal Passing
Charged four points and fined $25 each, unless otherwise stated, for illegal passing were Lawrence Graf, Jr., 18, Milwaukee, and $50 fine and four points for driving faster than reasonable; Paul B. Zelinski, 22, of 712 Appleton street, Menasha; Norbert F. Sinak, 36, Chicago; Albert J. Schwichtenberg, 51, West Bend, $28.95 forfeited; Edwin E. Maha, 52, Barrington, Ill.; James H. Long, 71, Chicago, $10 fine; Walter C. Kilian, 55, route 2, New London, $15 fine; Elmer W. Dallwig, 51, Chicago; Gordon V. Chevalier, 49, Neopit, $13.95 forfeited; and David G. Brennan, 22, route 1, Clintonville, $10 fine.

Charged six points each for driving 32 miles an hour over the 55-mile night speed limit were Charles M. Heenan, 19, route 1, Appleton, and Alan

G. Wunderlich, 21, route 1, Appleton, both fined $35 and their drivers' licenses revoked 60 days, stayed on the condition they are not arrested for a moving traffic violation during the next year.

Charged three points and fined $10 each, unless otherwise stated, for speeding were Richard L. Goodman, 23, Gladstone, Mich.; Robert H. DeValk, 26, of 103 Lox street, Kimberly; Clement F. Chell, 57, Columbus, $13.95 forfeited; Kenneth H. Grube, 29, Sheboygan, $13.95 forfeited; Gene F. Tuchscherer, 20, of 717 S. Commercial street, Neenah; Bruce A. Schulz, 24, of 820 Franklin street, Oshkosh; John W. Pingel, 19, East Chicago, $15 fine; and John A. Peterson, 53, Marion.

James McLeland, 73, Elmwood Park, Ill., was fined $25 and charged four points for inattentive driving. No accident was involved.

Frederick W. Frieders, 25, of 2517 Lynndale drive, was fined $15 and charged four points for driving too fast for conditions.

Didn't Stop
Edwin H. Gilson, 31, Houston, Texas, was fined $10 for and charged three points for ignoring a stop sign.

Donald H. Abel, 32, of 2131 S. Douglas street, was fined $10 and charged four points for failing to have a current driver's license.

Richard L. Horn, 19, route 2, Kaukauna, was fined $10 for having an illegal muffler on his car.

Fined $10 each for failing to have registration for their vehicles were Robert E. Laabs, 61, Hortonville, and John W. Hoffman, 44, route 2, Hortonville.

Rural Shiocton Trucker Fined For Overload

Duane Riehl Pays $160 on Three Separate Counts

A rural Shiocton truck driver was fined $160 on three charges stemming from truck overloading when he was arraigned Tuesday in municipal court.

It was later discovered by state patrol officers that a motor vehicle commissioner's order to confiscate the driver's license and truck license issued to Duane E. Riehl, 21, route 1, Shiocton, had been issued Aug. 9 because financial proof required through 1961 had been canceled.

Riehl was fined $75 for refusing to drive his truck to a public scale upon demand of state officers, $75 for dropping the truck load on the highway and $10 for a 1,600-pound overload. The arrests occurred Oct. 27 at Highways 41 and 47.

Riehl's record of convictions indicates failure to stop after an accident on Oct. 4, 1955; using a car in a felony (giving minors beer in a car) on the same date; no registration on April 17, 1956; driving too fast for conditions on Aug. 19, 1957; property damage accident on Aug. 24, 1957; improper mufflers and driving on the wrong side of the highway on April 22, 1958; ignoring a stop sign and a commissioner's warning letter on point accumulation on June 6, 1958; and a 90-day driver's license revocation on Sept. 30, 1958.

Fined $10 for a 3,220-pound license overload was Anton A. Wickesberg, 58, route 1, Appleton.

Hospital Heads Attend Meeting At St. Elizabeth

About 20 hospital administrators and personnel attended the quarterly meeting of the Lower Fox River Hospital council Tuesday at St. Elizabeth hospital.

Dr. Thomas A. Leonard, chairman of the State Medical society's maternal mortality study committee, addressed the group on 14 points to improve obstetrical care. Dr. Leonard is a clinical instructor at the University of Wisconsin medical school.

He praised St. Elizabeth's obstetrical department and told the administrators he liked the mothers' recovery room and the room telephones.

Deliver Backing For Governor's Deduction Plan

Post-Crescent Madison Bureau

Madison — The Democratic party organization has swung into action to deliver popular backing for Gov. Nelson's payroll deduction plan of collecting state income taxes, and the "windfall" of revenues that will enable him to bridge his budget deficit for next year.

Publicity material flowing from state headquarters here is pitched on the theme that a withholding system will be the equivalent of a tax reduction.

"Which do you want? Higher taxes or lower taxes with pay as you go?" asks the political promotion material now being delivered to local Democratic party organization officers and members for wide distribution.

(Gov. Nelson has proposed to repeal the existing 25 percent individual income surtax if the withholding plan is enacted.)

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon will also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge. Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAD gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAD moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAD's unequalled rebuilding action helps restore flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAD acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAD relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAD won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAD today! Introductory size 43¢.

Lesson in English

BY W. L. GORDON

Words often misused: Although the statement, "Either John or Mary must give up his place," is grammatically correct, it is awkward. It is much better to say, "Either John must give up his place, or Mary hers."

Often mispronounced: Autocracy. Accent second syllable.

Word study: "Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word for each day.

Today's word: preceptor; principal or teacher of school. "The preceptor of the boys' school" was also the football coach.

Five Ninth District Directors and board members were re-elected at the Midland Cooperative's annual district meeting in Appleton Tuesday. Three local co-ops, Appleton Cooperative association, Outagamie Equity Cooperative Exchange and Center Valley Cooperative association; Black Creek, received an aggregate stock dividend of $9,200 in the co-op's biggest year in the last 33. From left are Jerry Shea, Pickett, Midland director for the Ninth district; Lawrence Johnson, Door county, committee of review member; Arthur Roepke, Clintonville, district board member; Lynn Pingry, Sturgeon Bay, board member; and Harold Trever, Suring, board member.

5 AHS Students to Give Humorous Declamations

Five Appleton High school girls will present humorous declamations Thursday afternoon at the second forensic program for the student body. Coached by Kenneth Sager, participants will be Judi Jones, a sophomore; Lynn Kellogg, a junior; and Pat Mathews, Carole Moen and Ginger Springer, seniors.

Varied readings have been selected by the girls and one is an original work. Miss Kellogg has written her own selection called "Person to Person." It is a series of interviews with interesting persons in the midst of jumbled TV programs.

"Auntie Mame" Miss Jones has chosen an excerpt from "Auntie Mame" by J. Lawrence and R. E. Lee. The selection deals with "the fiance" being introduced to Auntie Mame.

"How to Understand Music" by Robert Benchley will be presented by Miss Mathews. The humorous account of "Eloise" by Kay Thompson, the story of a 6-year-old girl on a spinster's spree, be interpreted by Miss Moen.

"Bargain Day at the Hosiery Counter" by Edna Means will be Miss Springer's reading. The story deals with several characters at a sale.

Winner of the recital will have her name engraved on the school's hall of fame plaque along with that of Barbara Casper who was winner in the serious declamation.

Utility Joins To Oppose Any Rate Increase

Washington Lawyers
To Represent Five Communities

Kaukauna — The city council Tuesday authorized the utility commissioner to enter into agreement with a law firm in Washington, D. C., to represent the city along with other communities with municipal owned utilities, in opposition to any rate increase proposed by the Wisconsin Michigan Power company.

Mayor Joseph Bayoregon called a meeting of officials and utility managers from Kaukauna, New London, Shawano, Clintonville and Oconto Falls in September to discuss a joint effort in opposing rate hikes anticipated by the Wisconsin Michigan Power company.

These communities purchase extra power, from Wisconsin Michigan and rate hikes would affect operations of local municipalities. At the meeting the communities agreed to a joint effort against the hike.

Hire Representation
The group of utility managers agreed to hire the firm of Eli, McCarty and Duncan as rate consultants and attorneys to fight proposed hikes which may be petitioned for by WMPCO before the Federal Power commission.

The utilities will make an appropriation to the "defense fund" commensurate with the purchase power of each community as of 1956. Contributions to the fund will range from $5,000 to $10,000, according to Mayor Bayoregon.

Change City Map
A public hearing on changing the city map to dedicate a strip of land near the sewage disposal plant for road purposes was held. No one appeared for or against the proposal and the council approved the change.

The council decided to remove the entire boulevard on Main avenue with the engineer authorized to have the work carried out as crews are available. Aldermen started having portions of the boulevard removed several weeks ago in an effort to provide more parking for southside merchants. The decision to remove the entire boulevard came after improved traffic conditions were noted.

Little Chute Twirling Corps Officers Named

Little Chute — Election of officers highlighted a meeting of the Baton Twirling corps adults Monday night with Giles Hietpas named president and Mrs. Giles Hietpas, vice president.

Other officers include Mrs. Henry Vanden Heuvel, secretary; Mrs. Michael Zwiers, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Haupt, uniform chairman; Mrs. William Anholzer, trophy chairman; Leon Vanderloop, parade booking chairman, and Mrs. Ann Schumacher, lunch chairman.

Mrs. Reginald Hermen was named head of the fund raising committee and elected to the board of directors were Mrs. Robert Hietpas, Mrs. Norbert Demerath and Mrs. Henry Kuhn.

Cars Damaged as Driver Attempts To Pick Up Glove

Little Chute — Over $300 damage resulted to two cars but no one was injured when the driver of one of the vehicles dropped a glove and slid into the rear of another car when he bent to pick it up, according to village police.

Thomas Schmitt, 22, 123 W. Ninth street, Kaukauna, was traveling east on W. Main street about 12:20 a.m. Tuesday when a glove dropped to the floor. As he attempted to pick it up he failed to notice a car in front of him driven by Peter Van Bostel, 914 McKinley street, Little Chute. He applied his brakes, but skidded into the rear of the Van Bostel car.

No Tax Rate Hike in Tentative 1960 Budget

Fund Balance to Enable Common Council
To Meet Needs for Record $1,627,950

Kaukauna — No tax rate increase is anticipated despite a record high tentative budget for 1960 of $1,627,950 approved by the common council Tuesday night.

The tax levy of $37 per $1,000 of assessed valuation will bring in $842,624 compared to $843,082 in 1959 due to a slight dip in assessed valuation. The proposed budget is $4,218 greater than 1959 but trust and department fund balances at the start of 1960 are expected to be $311,513 and this together with receipts of $473,812 will enable the city to meet the budget.

Receipts other than property taxes in 1959 amounted to $525,052 and fund balances to start 1959 amounted to $255,597. City assessment for 1960 is $22,773,640 compared to $22,786,025 in 1959.

No Individual Breakdown
In calling for a public hearing on the budget Dec. 1, the council had no individual breakdown of expenditures in the proposed budget available other than expenditures for major categories. The city clerk is in the process of breaking down the budget for various purposes in different departments.

The proposed budget shows expenditure increases in nine categories and decreases in

Trains Block Crossings at Little Chute

To Write CNW
About Matter

Little Chute — Complaints over Chicago and North Western Railroad company cars blocking village streets were discussed by the board Tuesday night.

One trustee said he was caught in a waiting line for 20 minutes. Trustee Richard Ebben said he then turned out of the line and drove to another crossing.

Street Supt. Lambert Leygraf said that on a Sunday evening he tried to cross the tracks at Madison, Depot and Buchanan streets but they were all blocked. Finally, he drove to Kaukauna in order to reach his home.

Protest Blocking
Trustee Paul Hietpas of the police and ordinance committee said village police had called C and NV officials protesting the crossing blocking. Hietpas requested that the village attorney be instructed to write them a letter concerning the matter.

In other action the board passed two measures dealing with the regional planning commission. The first approved the contract between the commission and Schallie and Associates. The second approved the forming of the office of vice chairman for the commission.

Transfer of $6,000 from the general fund to a new garbage truck fund was approved. The finance committee recommended the move, saying it was only a part of the necessary amount needed to buy a new truck.

A claim for $34.45 in damages to his car was filed with the board by Roger Dercks, 529 S. Wilson street. Dercks claims his car was damaged when he drove into a hole on Grand avenue while reconstruction work was underway. The mishap occurred at night and there were no barricades, flares or signs. The claim was referred to the attorney.

The board also approved the purchase of two cabinets for storage space at the No. 2 pumping station, 12 new water meters and replacement parts, and two new tires for the squad car.

Pay Increases Approved by City Council

Adjustments to be Effective Jan. 1 as Finance Unit Advises

Kaukauna — The common council Tuesday approved pay hikes for city officials and employees effective Jan. 1 as recommended by the finance committee.

Among the increases are a $300 raise for aldermen raising their pay from $600 to $900 per year and a $1,200 increase for the mayor from $2,400 to $3,600 per year. Last year Mayor Bayoregon turned down a pay hike and objected to it this year only to have the committee override him.

The city attorney's pay was raised from $2,500 to $3,600 per year, the city clerk from $5,417 to $6,000 per year, the relief and recreation director from $5,130 to $5,933 per year and the city assessor, assistant building inspector and gas inspector from $5,314 to $5,600.

Other Adjustments
Other adjustments had the deputy clerk's salary raised from $3,465 to $3,900 per year, the city stenographer from $3,360 to $3,900 per year, the superintendent of the sewage plant from $5,064 to $5,550 per year and the city treasurer from $4,065 to $4,591 per year.

Other pay increases effective Jan. 1 will have the street department foreman getting $5,800 from $5,293, the city nurse getting $5,000 from $4,632. Grader, loader, backhoe operators, sewer department foreman and lead man will get $2.10 per hour.

All other personnel such as police and firemen, street workers, and other city employees will be given a three and one-half per cent wage hike. The council also approved three weeks vacation with pay, after 10 years, as recommended by the finance committee.

Board of education members, utility commissioners and fire and police commissioner salaries were increased $60 per year.

Rural Kaukauna Man Fined for Driving Car in Wrong Lane

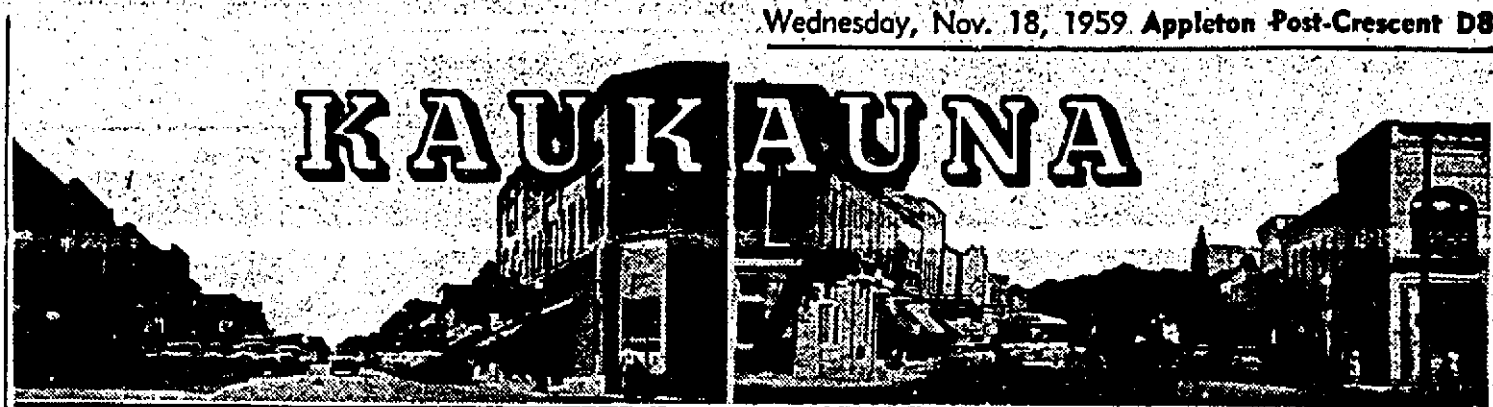

Kaukauna — Herman Hersant, 54, route 1, Kaukauna, was fined $15 by Oscar T. Jahns, justice of the peace, when he pleaded guilty in justice court of operating a motor vehicle on the wrong side of the road.

Hersant was arrested by police after taking a corner too sharply and causing an accident.

Former Missionary to Cuba to Speak for Gospel Chapel Group

Kaukauna — A missionary meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at the Community Gospel Chapel with Evangelist George Walker, former missionary to Cuba, as guest speaker.

Evangelist Walker will illustrate his talk with colored pictures.

WHO WAS GIVEN $3,000,000 FOR READING A BOOK?
James Lenox NAPER of County Meath, Ireland, ONE OF THE NEPHEWS CALLED IN BY WEALTHY JOHN DUTTON TO SELECT AN HEIR, INHERITED AN ESTATE WITH AN ANNUAL INCOME OF $400,000. WHEN HIS UNCLE ASKED EACH NEPHEW WHAT BOOK HE WAS READING AND JAMES NAPER REPLIED: "A LATIN GRAMMAR"

THE FAMILY TREE OF HOWTH CASTLE, Ireland
EACH TIME A MEMBER OF THE ST. LAWRENCE FAMILY DIED AT HOWTH CASTLE A BRANCH OF THIS TREE WITHERED AND FELL TO THE GROUND THE LAST BRANCH FELL IN 1898 - WHEN THE LAST HEIR DIED

Steel Strikes Cut Deep Into Nation's Output

$5 Billion Drop Noted in 3-Month
Period Starting July

Washington—(AP)—Effects of the steel strike have cut deep into the nation's industrial output than had been expected, the government reports.

Commerce department figures show the gross national product—the value of all goods and services produced—was held to an annual rate of $478,600,000,000 in the July-September quarter.

That was a $5,900,000,000 drop from the record annual rate of $484 1/2 billion for the April-June period.

The president's council of economic advisers had estimated last month that the GNP dropped to $481 billion in the July-September period. But Sunday's totals showed the drop was $2,400,000,000 greater than this.

Inventory Changes

Two billion dollars of the decline was attributed to inventory changes. The council had figured that businessmen built up their inventories at an annual rate of $200 million in the third quarter. But the report showed them reducing stocks at a rate of $1,800,000,000 a year.

Factories had to dip into their existing steel stocks to keep production going while the steel industry was shut down. A resumption of steel production during the current 80-day cooling off period in the strike will enable them to begin building up steel inventories again.

Personal spending, in comparison with the April-June quarter, was up more than $2 billion to an annual rate of $313,300,000,000. Government spending was up more than $1 1/2 billion.

College Board Okays Bids Of $811,632

Madison—(AP)—The state board of college regents has accepted low bids totaling $811,632 for construction of a shop laboratory building at Stout for special training in industrial education.

The regents also voted to accept a 90-acre Platteville mound area from R. H. Clauser. The site is located a few miles from the state college at Platteville and includes a huge "M" made of white rocks as a trademark for mining students.

A one-fifth interest in a private observatory was accepted by the regents. It was offered as a gift by Ralph Buckstaff of Oshkosh. The terms of the gift provide that the remainder of the property will be turned over to the state College system over a period of several years, for use by the college at Oshkosh.

An estimate of summer study session enrollment for the state colleges in 1960 was 3,595 compared with 7,732 this year. Eau Claire, Oshkosh, La Crosse, Stevens Point and Whitewater are expected to have more than 1,000 students.

Language Class Wears Masks

San Francisco—(AP)—The class of basic essentials of foreign languages at the University of San Francisco came to order and everybody put on slumber masks.

The idea was not that everybody should go to sleep. "The masks allow a student to give all his attention to the drill," said the Rev. P. Carlo Rossi, S. J., the teacher.

Father Rossi conceived the idea on a plane trip when he was handed a mask so he could sleep during daylight. It only set him to thinking. "I found that all distraction was gone. I was able to concentrate."
